EXPLANATORY NOTE

The cities of our country are the bastions of progress and development. Throughout history, people set off to cities to find sources of living as citadels of progress. As such, the cities and its citizens institute one of the cores of the country's culture and development.

Throughout history, the City of Cavite has not only proved to be a historic city but also one of the centers of culture in learning as exemplified by the large number of educational facilities in the area. The endeavors taken by the City's patriotic citizens which accumulated over time, molded the City into what it is today. As of the present, the city is a region of economic and opportunity endeavors that make the city one of the advocates of growth and progress.

In line with the significance of the City of Cavite to the country and the outmost respect that should be given to the hardworking and patriotic citizens of the City of Cavite, this bill proposes to declare the Seventh of September to be a special non-working holiday in the City of Cavite, in the Province of Cavite. Be it enacted expresses the acknowledgement of the State to the enduring contributions that the City bestows not only to the province of Cavite but also to this country and its development.

Immediate passage of this bill is earnestly appreciated.

Ramon Bong Revilla, Jr.
