EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article 15, Section 4 provides:

"The family has the duty to care for its elderly members but the State may also do so through just programs of social security."

The United Nations Principles for Older Persons, which was adopted by the General Assembly in Resolution 46/91 in 16 December 1991, provides:

"The General Assembly  $x \ge x$  [e]ncourages Governments to incorporate the following principles into their national programmes whenever possible:  $x \ge x$

"Older persons should be able to live in environments that are safe and adaptable to personal preferences and changing capacities.  $x \times x$

"Older persons should benefit from family and community care and protection in accordance with each society's system of cultural values.

"Older persons should have access to health care to help them to maintain or regain the optimum level of physical, mental and emotional well-being and to prevent or delay the onset of illness.

"Older persons should have access to social and legal services to enhance their autonomy, protection and care.

"Older persons should be able to utilize appropriate levels of institutional care providing protection, rehabilitation and social and mental stimulation in a humane and secure environment.

"Older persons should be able to enjoy human rights and fundamental freedoms when residing in any shelter, care or 'treatment facility, including full respect for their dignity, beliefs, needs and privacy and for the right to make decisions about their care and the quality of their lives.  $x \times x$

"Older persons should be able to live in dignity and security and be free of exploitation and physical or mental abuse."

The State has the duty to protect its elderly members against violence and other abuses committed against them by those responsible for their care, protection, or custody. This Act penalizes dependent adult abuse, and institute programs and mechanisms for its prevention.<sup>1</sup>

SENATE S. No. 2706

RECEIVED BY

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

AN ACT PENALIZING DEPENDENT ADULT ABUSE AND INSTITUTING PROGRAMS AND MECHANISMS FOR ITS PREVENTION

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

4 SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the "Dependent Adult Abuse
5 Prevention Act."

6 SECTION 2. Declaration of Policy. – It is hereby declared that the State values the 7 dignity of older persons and guarantees full respect for human rights. The State also recognizes 8 the need to protect the family, particularly its elderly members, from violence and threats to their 9 personal safety and security. It is the duty of the family to take care of its elderly members while 10 the State may design programs of social security for them.

11 Towards this end, the State shall exert efforts to address abuses committed against 12 dependent adults.

13 SECTION 3. Definitions. – As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Caretaker" means a related or nonrelated person who has the responsibility for the protection, care, or custody of a dependent adult as a result of assuming the responsibility voluntarily, by contract, through employment, or by order of the court.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Social Welfare and Development.

18 (c) "Dependent adult" means a person eighteen (18) years of age or older who is 19 unable to protect his or her own interests or unable to adequately perform or obtain services 20 necessary to meet essential human needs, as a result of a physical or mental condition which 21 requires assistance from another, or as defined by departmental rule.

- (d) "Dependent adult abuse" means:
  - (1) Any of the following as a result of the willful or negligent acts or omissions of a caretaker:
- (A) Physical injury to, or injury which is at a variance with the history given of the injury, or unreasonable confinement, unreasonable punishment, or assault of a dependent adult.
- 7 (B) Exploitation of a dependent adult which means the act or process
  8 of taking unfair advantage of a dependent adult or the adult's
  9 physical or financial resources for one's own personal or pecuniary 10 profit, without the informed consent of the dependent adult, 11 including theft, by the use of undue influence, harassment, duress, 12 deception, false representation, or false pretenses.
- 13 (C) The deprivation of the minimum food, shelter, clothing, 14 supervision, physical or mental health care, or other care necessary 15 to maintain a dependent adult's life or health.
- 16 (D) The deprivation of the minimum food, shelter, clothing, 17 supervision, physical or mental health care, and other care 18 necessary to maintain a dependent adult's life or health as a result 19 of the acts or omissions of the dependent adult.
- 20 (E) Sexual exploitation of a dependent adult by a caretaker. "Sexual 21 exploitation" means any consensual or nonconsensual sexual 22 conduct with a dependent adult for the purpose of arousing or 23 satisfying the sexual desires of the caretaker or dependent adult, 24 which includes but is not limited to kissing; touching of the clothed 25 or unclothed inner thigh, breast, groin, buttocks, anus, pubes, or 26 genitals; or a sex act.
- 27 Sexual exploitation includes the transmission, display, 28 taking of electronic images of the unclothed breast, groin, buttocks, 29 anus, pubes, or genitals of a dependent adult by a caretaker for a

- (2) Dependent adult abuse does not include any of the following:
- 10(A)Circumstances in which the dependent adult declines medical11treatment if the dependent adult holds a belief or is an adherent of12a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on spiritual13means in place of reliance on medical treatment.
- 14(B)Circumstances in which the dependent adult's caretaker, acting in15accordance with the dependent adult's stated or implied consent,16declines medical treatment if the dependent adult holds a belief or17is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for18reliance on spiritual means in place of reliance on medical19treatment.
- 20 (C) The withholding or withdrawing of health care from a dependent 21 adult who is terminally ill in the opinion of a licensed physician, 22 when the withholding or withdrawing of health care is done at the 23 request of the dependent adult or at the request of the dependent 24 adult's next of kin or guardian pursuant to law.
- (e) "Emergency shelter services" means and includes, but is not limited to, secure crisis shelters or housing for victims of dependent adult abuse.

(f) "Family or household member" means a spouse, a person cohabiting with the dependent adult, a parent, or a person related to the dependent adult by consanguinity or affinity, but does not include children of the dependent adult who are less than eighteen (18) years of age.

1 (g) "Immediate danger to health or safety" means a situation in which death or severe 2 bodily injury could reasonably be expected to occur without intervention.

3 (h) "Individual employed as an outreach person" means a natural person who, in the 4 course of employment, makes regular contacts with dependent adults regarding available 5 community resources.

6 (i) "Recklessly" means that a person acts or fails to act with respect to a material 7 element of a public offense, when the person is aware of and consciously disregards a substantial 8 and unjustifiable risk that the material element exists or will result from the act or omission. The 9 risk must be of such a nature and degree that disregard of the risk constitutes a gross deviation 10 from the standard conduct that a reasonable person would observe in the situation.

(j) "Secretary" refers to the Secretary of Social Work and Development.

12 (k) "Serious injury" means a disabling mental illness, or a bodily injury which creates 13 a substantial risk of death or which causes serious permanent disfigurement, or protracted loss or 14 impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.

(1) "Support services" includes but is not limited to community-based services including aging assistance, mental health services, fiscal management, home health services, housing-related services, counseling services, transportation services, adult day care services, respite services, legal services, and advocacy services.

19 SECTION 4. Dependent Adult Abuse Services. – The department shall establish and 20 operate a dependent adult abuse services program. The program shall emphasize the reporting 21 and evaluation of cases of abuse of a dependent adult who is unable to protect the adult's own 22 interests or unable to perform activities necessary to meet essential human needs. The program 23 shall include but is not limited to:

(a) The establishment of local or regional multidisciplinary teams to assist in assessing the needs of, formulating and monitoring a treatment plan for, and coordinating services to victims of dependent adult abuse. The membership of a team shall include individuals who possess knowledge and skills related to the diagnosis, assessment, and disposition of dependent adult abuse cases and who are professionals practicing in the disciplines of medicine, public health, mental health, social work, law, law enforcement, or other disciplines relative to ţ dependent adults. Members of a team shall include, but are not limited to, Department social workers, lawyers, health care providers, and other persons involved in advocating or providing services to dependent adults.

4 (b) Provisions for information sharing and case consultation among service providers,
5 care providers, and victims of dependent adult abuse.

6 (c) Procedures for referral of cases among service providers, including the referral of 7 victims of dependent adult abuse residing in licensed health care facilities.

8 SECTION 5. Dependent Adult Protective Advisory Council. – There is established a 9 dependent adult protective advisory council.

10 (a) The advisory council shall consist of five members to be appointed by the 11 President of the Philippines. The members shall be appointed on the basis of knowledge and 12 skill related to expertise in the area of dependent adult abuse including professionals practicing 13 in the disciplines of medicine, public health, mental health, long-term care, social work, law, and 14 law enforcement.

(b) The members of the advisory council shall be appointed to terms of four years beginning May 1.

17 (c) Members shall receive actual expenses incurred while serving in their official18 capacity.

19 (d) The advisory council shall select a chairperson, annually, from its membership.

20 (e) The advisory council shall: (1) advise the Secretary regarding dependent adult 21 abuse prevention; (2) evaluate laws and rules and make recommendations to Congress and to 22 executive branch departments regarding laws and rules concerning dependent adults; and (3) 23 receive and review recommendations and complaints from the public concerning the dependent 24 adult abuse services program.

25 SECTION 6. Dependent Adult Abuse Reports, – (a) The department shall receive 26 dependent adult abuse reports, and shall collect, maintain, and disseminate the reports by 27 establishing a central registry for dependent adult abuse information. The department shall 28 evaluate the reports expeditiously.

ļ

Reports of dependent adult abuse which is the result of the acts or omissions of the 1 2 dependent adult shall be collected and maintained in the files of the dependent adult as assessments only and shall not be included in the central registry. 3 All of the following persons shall report'suspected dependent adult abuse to the 4 (a) 5 department: 6 (1) A self-employed social worker; A social worker under the department; 7 (2)A social worker employed by a public or private person including a public or 8 (3) 9 private health care facility; (4) A certified psychologist; 10 A person who, in the course of employment, examines, attends, counsels, or treats 11 (5) a dependent adult and reasonably believes the dependent adult has suffered abuse, 12 including, but not limited to: 13 A member of the staff of a public health center, a member of the staff of a 14 (A) hospital, or a member of the staff or employee of a public or private health 15 16 care facility; A police officer; or (B) 17 A health practitioner. 18 (C) 19 (b) Any other person who believes that a dependent adult has suffered abuse may report the suspected abuse to the department of human services. 20

(c) Following the reporting of suspected dependent adult abuse, the department shall complete an assessment of necessary services and shall make appropriate referrals for receipt of these services. The assessment shall include interviews with the dependent adult, and, if appropriate, with the alleged perpetrator of the dependent adult abuse and with any person believed to have knowledge of the circumstances of the case. The department may provide necessary protective services and may establish a sliding fee schedule for those persons able to pay a portion of the protective services.

(d) Upon a showing of probable cause that a dependent adult has been abused, a court may authorize a person, also authorized by the department, to make an evaluation, to enter the residence of, and to examine the dependent adult. Upon a showing of probable cause that a dependent adult has been financially exploited, a court may authorize a person, also authorized by the department, to make an evaluation, and to gain access to the financial records of the dependent adult.

5 (e) The department may request information from any person believed to have 6 knowledge of a case of dependent adult abuse. The person shall cooperate and assist in the 7 evaluation upon the request of the department. If the department's assessment reveals that 8 dependent adult abuse exists which might constitute a criminal offense, a report shall be made to 9 the appropriate government agency. Appropriate government agencies shall also take any other 10 lawful action necessary or advisable for the protection of the dependent adult.

11 (f) If, upon completion of the evaluation, the department determines that the best 12 interests of the dependent adult require court action, the department shall initiate action for the 13 appointment of a guardian or conservator or for admission or commitment to an appropriate 14 institution or facility pursuant to the applicable procedures under the law, or shall pursue other 15 remedies provided by law.

16 (g) The department shall assist the court during all stages of court proceedings17 involving a suspected case of dependent adult abuse.

In every case involving abuse which is substantiated by the department and which 18 (h) results in a judicial proceeding on behalf of the dependent adult, legal counsel shall be appointed 19 20 by the court to represent the dependent adult in the proceedings, if the dependent adult cannot secure the services of a lawyer. The court may also appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the 21 dependent adult if necessary to protect the dependent adult's best interests. The same attorney 22 may be appointed to serve both as legal counsel and as guardian ad litem. Before legal counsel or 23 a guardian ad litem is appointed pursuant to this section, the court shall require the dependent 24 adult and any person legally responsible for the support of the dependent adult to complete under 25 26 oath a detailed financial statement. If, on the basis of that financial statement, the court deems that the dependent adult or the legally responsible person is able to bear all or a portion of the 27 cost of the legal counsel or guardian ad litem, the court shall so order. In cases where the 28 dependent adult or the legally responsible person is unable to bear the cost of the legal counsel or guardian ad litem, the expense shall be paid by the government.

3 (i) A person participating in good faith in reporting or cooperating with or assisting 4 the department in evaluating a case of dependent adult abuse has immunity from liability, civil or 5 criminal, which might otherwise be incurred or imposed based upon the act of making the report 6 or giving the assistance. The person has the same immunity with respect to participating in good 7 faith in a judicial proceeding resulting from the report or cooperation or assistance or relating to 8 the subject matter of the report, cooperation, or assistance.

9 It shall be unlawful for any person or employer to discharge, suspend, or otherwise discipline a person required to report or voluntarily reporting an instance of suspected dependent 10 adult abuse pursuant to this section, or cooperating with, or assisting the department in 11 12 evaluating a case of dependent adult abuse, or participating in judicial proceedings relating to the 13 reporting or cooperation or assistance based solely upon the person's reporting or assistance relative to the instance of dependent adult abuse. A person or employer found in violation of this 14 subsection shall be guilty of an offense and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a 15 16 term not exceeding one (1) year and a fine not exceeding fifty thousand pesos (P50,000.00).

(j) A person required by this section to report a suspected case of dependent adult abuse who knowingly and willfully fails to do so shall be guilty of an offense and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a tern not exceeding one (1) year and a fine not exceeding twenty thousand pesos (P20,000.00). A person required by this section to report a suspected case of dependent adult abuse who knowingly fails to do so is civilly liable for the damages proximately caused by the failure.

23 SECTION 7. Duties of Police Officers. – If a police officer has reason to believe that 24 dependent adult abuse, which is criminal in nature, has occurred, the officer shall use all 25 reasonable means to prevent further abuse, including but not limited to any of the following:

26 (a) If requested, remaining on the scene as long as there is a danger to the dependent 27 adult's physical safety without the presence of a police officer, including but not limited to 28 staying in the dwelling unit, or if unable to remain at the scene, assisting the dependent adult in 29 leaving the residence and securing support services or emergency shelter services.

1 (b) Assisting the dependent adult in obtaining medical treatment necessitated by the 2 dependent adult abuse, including providing assistance to the dependent adult in obtaining 3 transportation to the emergency room of the nearest hospital.

4 (c) Providing a dependent adult with immediate and adequate notice of the dependent 5 adult's rights. The notice shall consist of handing the dependent adult a copy of the following 6 written statement, requesting the dependent adult to read the card and asking the dependent adult 7 whether the dependent adult understands the rights:

- 8 (1) "If you are in need of medical treatment, you have the right to request that 9 the police officer present assist you in obtaining transportation to the 10 nearest hospital or otherwise assist you."
- (2) "If you believe that police protection is needed for your physical safety, you have the right to request that the police officer present remain at the scene until you and other affected parties can leave or safety is otherwise ensured."
- 15 (3) "You have the right to ask the court for the following help on a temporary16 basis:
- 17 (A) Keeping the alleged perpetrator away from you, your home, and 18 your place of work.

20

- (B) The right to stay at your home without interference from the alleged perpetrator.
- 21 (C) Professional counseling for you, your family, or household 22 members, and the alleged perpetrator of the dependent adult 23 abuse."
- 24The notice shall also contain the telephone number of the local emergency25shelter services, support services, or crisis lines operating in the area.

SECTION 8. Creation and Maintenance of a Central Registry. – (a) There is created within the department a central registry for dependent adult abuse information. The department shall organize and staff the registry and adopt rules for its operation.

(b) The registry shall collect, maintain, and disseminate dependent adult abuse information as provided in this Act.

3 (c) The department shall maintain a toll-free telephone line, which shall be available 4 on a twenty-four-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week basis and which the department and all other 5 persons may use to report cases of suspected dependent adult abuse and that all persons 6 authorized by this Act may use for obtaining dependent adult abuse information.

7 (d) An oral report of suspected dependent adult abuse initially made to the central 8 registry shall be immediately transmitted by the department to the appropriate government 9 agencies.

10 (e) The registry, upon receipt of a report of suspected dependent adult abuse, shall 11 search the records of the registry, and if the records of the registry reveal any previous report of 12 dependent adult abuse involving the same adult or if the records reveal any other pertinent 13 information with respect to the same adult, the appropriate government agencies shall be 14 immediately notified of that fact.

(f) The central registry shall include but not be limited to report data, investigation data, and disposition data.

SECTION 9. Authorized Access. - (a) The confidentiality of all dependent adult abuse information shall be maintained, except as specifically provided by this section.

(b) Access to dependent adult abuse information other than unfounded dependentadult abuse information is authorized only to the following persons:

- 21 (1) A subject of a report including all of the following:
- 22 (A) To an adult named in a report as a victim of abuse or to the adult's attorney 23 or guardian ad litem.
- 24 (B) To a guardian or legal custodian, or that person's attorney, of an adult 25 named in a report as a victim of abuse.
- 26 (C) To the person or the attorney for the person named in a report as having27 abused an adult.
- (2) A person involved in an investigation of dependent adult abuse including all of the following:

1 A health practitioner or mental health professional who is examining, (A) attending, or treating an adult whom such practitioner or professional 2 believes or has reason to believe has been the victim of abuse or to a 3 health practitioner or mental health professional whose consultation with 4 respect to an adult believed to have been the victim of abuse is requested 5 6 by the department. 7 An employee or agent of the department responsible for the investigation (B) of a dependent adult abuse report. 8 (C) A representative of the department involved in the certification or 9 10 accreditation of an agency or program providing care or services to a dependent adult believed to have been a victim of abuse. 11 A law enforcement officer responsible for assisting in an investigation of a 12 (D) dependent adult abuse allegation. 13 A multidisciplinary team, if the department approves the composition of 14 (E) 15 the multidisciplinary team and determines that access to the team is necessary to assist the department in the investigation, diagnosis, 16 assessment, and disposition of a case of dependent adult abuse. 17 The mandatory reporter who reported the dependent adult abuse in an (F) 18 19 individual case. A person providing care to an adult including all of the following: 20 (3) The licensing authority for a facility providing care to an adult named in a (A) 21 22 report. 23 (B) A person authorized as responsible for the care or supervision of an adult named in a report as a victim of abuse or a person named in a report as 24 having abused an adult if the court or registry deems access to dependent 25 26 adult abuse information by such person to be necessary. An employee or agent of the department responsible for registering or 27 (C) 28 licensing or approving the registration or licensing of a person, or to an 29 individual providing care to an adult and regulated by the department.

Relating to judicial and administrative proceedings, persons including all of the 1 (4) following: 2 (A) A court upon a finding that information is necessary for the resolution of 3 an issue arising in any phase of a case involving dependent adult abuse. 4 A court or administrative agency hearing an appeal for correction of (B) 5 dependent adult abuse information as provided in this Act. 6 7 (C)An expert witness at any stage of an appeal necessary for correction of dependent adult abuse information as provided in this Act. 8 Other persons including all of the following: 9 (5) 10 (A) A person conducting bona fide research on dependent adult abuse, but 11 without information identifying individuals named in a dependent adult abuse report, unless having that information open to review is essential to 12 the research or evaluation and the authorized registry officials give prior 13 written approval and the adult, the adult's guardian or guardian ad litem, 14 and the person named in a report as having abused an adult give 15 permission to release the information. 16 Registry or department personnel when necessary to the performance of 17 (B) their official duties or a person or agency under contract with the 18 department to carry out official duties and functions of the registry. 19 (C) A health care facility administrator or the administrator's designee, 20 following the appeals process, for the purpose of hiring staff or continued 21 employment of staff. 22 SECTION 10. Redissemination of Dependent Adult Abuse Information. - (a) A recipient 23 of dependent adult abuse information authorized to receive the information shall not 24 redisseminate the information, except that redissemination shall be permitted when all of the 25 26 following conditions apply: The redissemination is for official purposes in connection with prescribed duties 27 (1)or, in the case of a health practitioner, pursuant to professional responsibilities. 28

(4) The written record is forwarded to the registry within thirty (30) days of the redissemination.

A written record is made of the redissemination, including the name of the 7 (b) The department may notify, orally, the mandatory reporter in an individual 8 dependent adult abuse case of the results of the case investigation and of the confidentiality 9 provisions of the Act. The department shall subsequently transmit a written notice to the 10 mandatory reporter of the results and confidentiality provisions. A copy of the written notice 11 shall be transmitted to the registry and shall be maintained by the registry as provided in this Act.

SECTION 11. Sealing and Expungement of Dependent Adult Abuse Information. - (a) 12 Dependent adult abuse information relating to a particular case of suspected dependent adult 13 abuse shall be sealed ten (10) years after the receipt of the initial report of such abuse by the 14 registry unless good cause is shown why the information should remain open to authorized 15 access. If a subsequent report of a suspected case of dependent adult abuse involving the adult 16 named in the initial report as the victim of abuse or a person named in such report as having 17 abused an adult is received by the registry within the ten-year period, the information shall be 18 19 sealed ten (10) years after receipt of the subsequent report unless good cause is shown why the 20 information should remain open to authorized access.

(b) Dependent adult abuse information which cannot be determined by a preponderance of the evidence to be founded or unfounded shall be expunged one (1) year after the receipt of the initial report of abuse and dependent adult abuse information which is determined by a preponderance of the evidence to be unfounded shall be expunged immediately when it is determined to be unfounded.

26 (c) However, if a correction of dependent adult abuse information is requested under 27 section 12 and the issue is not resolved at the end of one year the information shall be retained 28 until the issue is resolved and if the dependent adult abuse information is not determined to be 29 founded, the information shall be expunged immediately when it is determined to be unfounded.

R

1 (d) The registry, at least annually, shall review and determine the current status of 2 dependent adult abuse reports which are at least one (1) year old and in connection with which 3 no investigatory report has been filed by the department. If no investigatory report has been 4 filed, the registry shall request the department to file a report. If a report is not filed within 5 ninety (90) days subsequent to a request, the report and relative information shall be sealed and 6 remain sealed unless good cause is shown why the information should remain open to authorized 7 access.

8 SECTION 12. Examination, Requests for Correction or Expungement, and Appeal. – (a) 9 Any person or that person's attorney shall have the right to examine dependent adult abuse 10 information in the registry which refers to that person. The registry may prescribe reasonable 11 hours and places of examination.

12 A person may file with the department within six (6) months of the date of the (b) 13 notice of the results of an investigation, a written statement to the effect that dependent adult 14 abuse information referring to the person is in whole or in part erroneous, and may request a correction of that information or of the findings of the investigation report. The department shall 15 provide the person with an opportunity for an administrative hearing to correct the information or 16 17 the findings, unless the department corrects the information or findings as requested. The department shall delay the expungement of information which is not determined to be founded 18 until the conclusion of a proceeding to correct the information or findings. The department may 19 20 defer the hearing until the conclusion of a court case relating to the information or findings.

21 (c) The decision resulting from the hearing may be appealed to the family court 22 having jurisdiction in the place where the dependent adult resides by the person requesting the 23 correction. Immediately upon appeal the court shall order the department to file with the court a 24 certified copy of the dependent adult abuse information.

25 (d) Upon request of the appellant, the record and evidence in such cases shall be 26 closed to all but the court and its officers, and access to the record and evidence shall be 27 prohibited unless otherwise ordered by the court. The clerk shall maintain a separate docket for 28 such actions. A person other than the appellant shall not permit a copy of the testimony or pleadings or the substance of the testimony or pleadings to be made available to any person other than a party to the action or the party's attorney.

3 (e) If the registry corrects or eliminates information as requested or as ordered by the 4 court, the registry shall advise all persons who have received the incorrect information of the 5 fact. Upon application to the court and service of notice on the registry, an individual may 6 request and obtain a list of all persons who have received dependent adult abuse information 7 referring to the individual.

8 (f) In the course of any proceeding provided for by this section, the identity of the 9 person who reported the disputed information and the identity of any person who has been 10 reported as having abused an adult may be withheld upon a determination by the registry that 11 disclosure of the person's identity would be detrimental to the person's interest.

12 SECTION 13. Civil Remedy. - Any aggrieved person may institute a civil action for 13 damages or to restrain the dissemination of dependent adult abuse information in violation of this 14 Act, and any person proven to have disseminated or to have requested and received dependent adult abuse information in violation of this Act shall be liable for actual damages and exemplary 15 16 damages for each violation and shall be liable for court costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's 17 fees incurred by the party bringing the action. In no case shall the award for damages be less than ten (10) thousand pesos. The civil action may be instituted simultaneously with the criminal 18 19 action for violations of this Act.

SECTION 14. Registry Reports. - (a) The registry shall compile statistics, conduct research, and issue reports on dependent adult abuse, provided identifying details of the subjects of dependent adult abuse reports are deleted from any report issued.

23 (b) The registry shall issue an annual report on its administrative operation, including 24 information as to the number of requests for dependent adult abuse data, the proportion of 25 requests attributable to each type of authorized access, the frequency and nature of irregularities, 26 and other pertinent matters.

27 SECTION 15. Emergency Order for Protective Services. – (a) If the department 28 determines that a dependent adult is suffering from dependent adult abuse which presents an 29 immediate danger to the health or safety of the dependent adult, that the dependent adult lacks

1 capacity to consent to receive protective services, and that no consent can be obtained, the 2 department may petition the family court having jurisdiction over the place where the dependent adult resides for an emergency order authorizing protective services. 3 The petition shall be verified and shall include all of the following: 4 (b) The name, date of birth, and address of the dependent adult who needs 5 (1) 6 protective services. The nature of the dependent adult abuse. 7 (2)8 (3) The services required. 9 · Upon finding that there is probable cause to believe that the dependent adult (c) abuse presents an immediate threat to the health or safety of the dependent adult 10 and that the dependent adult lacks capacity to consent to the receipt of services, 11 the court may do any of the following: 12 13 Order removal of the dependent adult to safer surroundings. (1)Order the provision of medical services. 14 (2)Order the provision of other available services necessary to remove 15 (3)16 conditions creating the danger to health or safety, including the services of peace officers or emergency services personnel. 17 The emergency order expires at the end of seventy-two (72) hours from the time (d) 18 of the order unless the seventy-two-hour, period ends on a Saturday, Sunday, or 19 legal holiday in which event the order is automatically extended to four p.m. on 20 the first succeeding business day. An order may be renewed for not more than 21 fourteen (14) additional days. A renewal order that ends on a Saturday, Sunday, or 22 legal holiday is automatically extended to four p.m. on the first succeeding 23 24 business day. The court may modify or terminate the emergency order on the petition of the department, the dependent adult, or any person interested in the 25 26 dependent adult's welfare. 27 (e) If the department cannot obtain an emergency order under this section due to 28 inaccessibility of the court, the department may contact law enforcement to
