SENATE
Senate Bill No. 1090

RECEIVED BY: ja

Introduced by: Senator Paolo Benigno "Bam" A. Aquino IV

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Our heroes and elders have always touted the Filipino youth as the "hope of the nation." In recent years, however, a number of issues have plagued the Sangguniang Kabataan (SK), prompting us to take a closer look at the way youth representation in the Philippines is designed. Many have decried the alleged "corruption" in the SK system, saying that this structure has become a "breeding ground" of "traditional politics."

The proposed Liga ng Bayaning Kabataan (LBK) Bill seeks to uphold youth representation by returning to the true spirit of volunteerism and taking youth participation away from the clutches of partisan politics. It is anchored on the twin beliefs that youth organizations are a potent force in nation-building, and that the power of young Filipinos is strongest when they work with people who share their values and goals, and in an environment of teamwork and collaboration.

For the purposes of this Bill, "youth organizations" are defined as such:

- (i) Composed of at least twenty (20) members;
- (ii) With a majority of the members aged within fifteen (15) to twenty-four (24) years old; and
- (iii) With a vision, mission, list of members and officers, and/or a report of a recently concluded project;

A major feature of this Bill is its departure from individualistic, personality-based politics and the shift to youth representation through youth organizations. As proposed, youth representatives shall no longer be elected at large in barangay elections, but they shall be elected through a collegial body composed of representatives of youth organizations registered with the National Youth Commission (NYC).

Another major point of reform proposed in this Bill is the concept of "bottom-up budgeting." We believe that for projects to be most effective, they should reflect the true conditions and needs of youth in the community; respond appropriately to these most pressing concerns; and have the engagement and ownership of community youth, from planning to execution to evaluation. "Bottom-up budgeting", therefore, requires "end-to-end" transparency, accountability, good governance, and community youth participation for all LBK projects.

The above measures represent a departure from our current system of youth representation and governance. They also represent new ways of thinking, coupled with the belief that young Filipinos will embrace these reforms for the sake of genuine change and progress. We stand firm in our belief that young Filipinos want what is best for their communities, and are willing to innovate and do what is right in order to keep their stake in our shared future.

We push for this measure buoyed by our hope in the Filipino youth, and confident that their collective voices will speak of and for a better Philippines for us all.
