S. No. 698

INTRODUCED BY HON. MANUEL B. VILLAR JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Pursuant to Memorandum Circular No. 3 issued by the Minister of Justice on September 25, 1978, service of warrants of arrests is prohibited during night time, on holidays, or on weekends except only in cases of a citizen's arrest; arrest of persons made as a result of surveillance or entrapment operations; when a person is being arrested for subversion and other crimes and offenses against national security; in cases of notorious and dangerous criminals for whom outstanding warrants of arrest have been issued; and escapists and fugitives from justice.

In the words of the Circular – “Warrants of arrest should be served with the most careful adherence to the protections which the Constitution affords the individual citizen. In particular, it should be constantly borne in mind that the Constitution provides that in all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall be presumed innocent until the contrary is proved. It likewise provides that no person should be deprived of liberty without due process of law.”

“To ensure that these Constitutional protections shall not be jeopardized, utmost care should be observed in serving warrants of arrest. Most specifically, no arrest should be made during nighttime, on holidays, or on weekends except as stated. This prohibition is intended to avoid inconvenience on the part of the arrested person, who otherwise might find it difficult to post bond for his provisional liberty, or to secure the services of legal counsel while under detention.”

In order to give more teeth to the Circular and to further strengthen the Constitutional safeguards against unwarranted invasions and inroads on individual liberties, it is proposed to embody the aforementioned prohibitions in statutory form and to provide the corresponding sanctions for violations thereof.

Accordingly, it is most respectfully urged upon this august body to enact the proposed measure into law.

MANUEL B. VILLAR, JR.
