

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE)
REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

SENATE
S. No. 2189

Introduced by Senator Antonio "Sonny" F. Trillanes IV

AN ACT
GRANTING BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES TO FORMER PRESIDENTS AND VICE PRESIDENTS OF THE PHILIPPINES OR THEIR SURVIVING SPOUSES, AMENDING FOR THIS PURPOSE REPUBLIC ACT NO. 5059, REPEALING REPUBLIC ACT NO. 2087, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Former Presidents and Vice Presidents do not cease in performing many of their public responsibilities upon retirement. As former highest-ranking officers of the land, they have post-presidential and post-vice presidential duties to perform, among which are responding to post-presidency and post-vice presidency mail and invitations and attending to speaking engagements. In cognizance of these social obligations, existing legislations grant former presidents and their widows/widowers certain benefits and privileges. Aside from franking privilege, Republic Act No. 5059 mandates that a former president shall receive an annual pension of P40,000.00 while Republic Act No. 2087 allows for the former president's widow/widower to be entitled to an annual pension of P24,000.00.

The extent and coverage of said measures, however, is not enough to sufficiently respond to the unique position of said former high officials in the public sphere even after they leave their post. At present, the country has three (3) living former presidents, all three of them receiving a monthly pension of P8,000.00.¹ In the United States, former presidents, under the Former Presidents Act of 1958, receive a monthly pension equivalent to the salary of a department secretary, among many other benefits. This was enacted to discourage them from being forced into activities deemed unsuitable for a former head of state. Moreover, said measures cater to the needs of former Presidents alone, excluding former Vice Presidents.

This measure seeks to assist our former Presidents and Vice Presidents in the performance of their informal, ceremonial but nonetheless public duties, through the grant of benefits and privileges that them and/or their surviving spouses, in effect expanding Republic Act No. 5059 and repealing Republic Act No. 2087.

It is hoped that the passage of this measure shall honor our former state leaders with the benefits and privileges commensurate to their former post as the highest officers in the land, and will maintain the dignity of the Office of the President and the Office of the Vice President by ensuring that the former occupants thereof are properly taken cared of.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
