AN ACT
MANDATING THE SECRETARY OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT TO CONDUCT RESEARCH ON PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT IN LIEU OF RETRENCHMENT

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article 2, Section 9 provides:

SEC. 9. The State shall promote a just and dynamic social order that will ensure the prosperity and independence of the nation and free the people from poverty through policies that provide adequate social services, promote full employment, a rising standard of living, and an improved quality of life for all.

The global financial crisis has led to many companies suffering serious business losses locally and abroad. As a result, many employees are laid off to counteract the losses. Such employees then find a hard time immediately getting employment. Without any immediate prospects, these employees, especially those who support their own families are at a loss as to the source of their livelihood. Not only are their productivity wasted, but they end up joining the ranks of countless countrymen in poverty. An option to maintain a part-time employment while looking for a new employment will go a long way in easing out the impact of the global financial crisis while conserving the productivity of both the employer and the employee.

This bill mandates the Secretary of Labor and Employment to conduct a research on part-time employment in lieu of retrenchment option for employers suffering business losses. By determining the best business practices and recommending the most optimal government support for both the employers and the employees concerned, we will be able to weather out the ongoing global financial crisis.<sup>1</sup>
