EXPLANATORY NOTE

Barangay Tanod brigades were organized to assist the government in the maintenance of peace and order in the country. Pursuant to such duty, they conduct rondas or nightly patrols, necessarily exposing their lives and limbs to danger in the hands of criminal elements and other wayward members of society. In fact, an alarming number of barangay tanods have already been assaulted, injured and/or killed, leaving their families and dependents to fend for themselves.

This bill seeks to grant hazard pay to all duly appointed members of the barangay tanod brigades during their incumbency as such. It is in recognition of their active participation and constructive role in the maintenance of peace and order. It will also serve as an incentive for a more faithful performance and discharge of their duties and functions.

It is the aim of this bill to give to the barangay tanods what is due to them. In view of the foregoing considerations, the approval of this bill is highly recommended.
