S. B. No. 3030

AN ACT
STRENGTHENING THE PROHIBITION AGAINST LABOR-ONLY
CONTRACTING, AMENDING FOR THIS PURPOSE
PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 442, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE LABOR CODE OF THE PHILIPPINES, AS AMENDED

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article II, Section 18 of the 1987 Constitution provides that "[t]he State affirms labor as a primary social economic force. It shall protect the rights of workers and promote their welfare." Article XIII, Section 3 also states that "[t]he State shall afford full protection to labor, local and overseas, organized and unorganized, and promote full employment and equality of employment opportunities for all." The same provision further mandates the right of all workers to security of tenure, humane conditions of work, and a living wage.

To implement these constitutional guarantees, Presidential Decree No. 442, otherwise known as The Labor Code of the Philippines, as amended, was enacted. P.D. No. 442 construes security of tenure to mean that in cases of regular employment, the employer shall not terminate the services of an employee without just or authorized cause.

Despite the rights of the workers under constitutional and labor laws, there are employers who wantonly circumvent labor laws through a system that is designed to prevent workers from attaining regular employment and security of tenure, such as by terminating employment every five months and thereafter rehiring the same workers for the same duration, or by denying the existence of employer-employee relationship by engaging the services of workers either from workers' cooperatives or manpower agencies, which will be the purported employers, to perform functions which are necessary and desirable to their main business without attaining regular employment.

These prevalent practices of labor contractualization have made it difficult for workers to attain the security of tenure guaranteed by the Constitution. Therefore, this proposed bill expressly prohibits these practices.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this measure is earnestly requested.
