S. No. 1059

Introduced by Senator Edgardo J. Angara

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The introduction of Islamic faith in the Philippines has immensely contributed to the enrichment, vibrance and diversity of our unique culture and civilization.

The Sheik Karimul Makhdum Mosque at Tubig Indangan, Simunul, Tawi-Tawi was constructed by an Arabian Missionary in 1380 A.D. Sometime in 1965, the late President Ferdinand E. Marcos and First Lady Imelda Marcos went to the site to install a historic marker giving it recognition as the first mosque in the Philippines.

The Regional Government of the Autonomous Region of Muslim Mindanao, through its Legislative Assembly, has already passed a regional law declaring the inclusion of the Sheikh Makhdum centennial celebration as one of the Islamic events entitled to a special non-working holiday within the ARMM.

This bill seeks to declare the Sheik Karimadul Mosque as national shrine. This will give the necessary recognition to the contribution of Islam in the development of culture and civilization in our country.

This proposed measure will also be a sign to our brother Moslems in Mindanao, that they are being accorded due and equal recognition by the national government.

For the above-mentioned reasons, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
