SENATE
S. No. 3103

RECEIVED BY:

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

AN ACT
ESTABLISHING A STATUTE OF REPOSE FOR DURABLE GOODS USED IN A
TRADE OR BUSINESS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Through ingenuity of design and quality of craftsmanship, manufacturers produce a range of workplace goods, whose useful life exceeds 12 years. Many of these goods have been in service for decades. This bill seeks to address a fundamental problem for manufacturers, the long tail of liability that extends for creating long-lasting quality good by establishing a statute of repose for durable goods used in a trade or business.

Black's Law Dictionary defines a statute of repose as a statute barring any suit that is brought after a specified time since the defendant acted. In this case, 12 years after the product was delivered to its first purchaser, even if this period ends before the plaintiff has suffered a resulting injury. This differs from a statute of limitations, which is a statute establishing a time, limit for suing in a civil case based on the date when the claim accrued.¹
