EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article 11 of the Constitution provides that the State values the dignity of every human person and guarantees full respect for human rights. The State also recognizes the vital role of the youth in nation-building and shall promote and protect their physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual, and social well-being. Further, the State recognizes the role of women in nation-building, and shall ensure the fundamental equality before the law of women and men.

This proposed bill seeks to abate prostitution, which is becoming more rampant, continues to be a menace to society, violating the rights of more women and children. It provides that a woman, man or child used, employed or exploited for another person's sexual gratification or pleasure, and for the monetary gain or profit of others shall be treated as victims of prostitution. It also imposes penalties on perpetrators and provides protective measures and support services for its victims.

In view thereof, the early passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
