

THIRTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC) OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

704 JUL 20 1920

SENATE
S.B. No. 1498

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article II, Section 5 provides:

The maintenance of peace and order, the protection of life, liberty and property, and the promotion of the general welfare are essential for the enjoyment by all people of the blessings of democracy.

Millions of Filipinos live and work overseas while continuing to vote and pay taxes in the Philippines. They help in the economy and serve as economic, political, and cultural "ambassadors" of the country.

Hence, the National Statistics Office should undertake a census of all Filipinos residing abroad in a special census and eventually in regular censuses as they, albeit living abroad, deserve to receive the same benefits and privileges local residents get.

This bill seeks to provide for an interim census of Filipinos residing abroad for the purpose of eventually including them in regular censuses.

AN ACT
TO PROVIDE FOR AN INTERIM CENSUS OF FILIPINOS RESIDING ABROAD AND TO REQUIRE THAT SUCH INDIVIDUALS BE INCLUDED IN REGULAR CENSUSES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Short Title. - This Act shall be known as the "Census of Filipinos Abroad Act".

SECTION 2. Counting of Filipinos Residing Abroad. -

(1) IN GENERAL - The National Statistics Office shall -

(a) take a special census of all Filipinos residing abroad on March within Three Hundred Sixty (360) days after the enactment of this Act.

(b) submit the final tabulations under the special census to the President and Congress within nine (9) months after the date specified in paragraph (a), broken down into appropriate categories, including -

(i) Filipinos residing abroad affiliated with the Government, and their dependents; and

(ii) Filipinos residing abroad not affiliated with the Government, and their dependents;

(c) The office, for purposes of facilitating the census scheme, shall:

(i) develop counting methodologies;

(ii) define the purposes for which any information could or should be used;

(iii) whether Filipinos residing abroad can be included in the regular census for purposes of the apportionment of Representatives in Congress and, if so, how that should be done;

(a) take appropriate measures –

(i) to provide for the inclusion of Filipinos residing abroad in the next regular censuses thereafter; and

(ii) to make use of the information obtained from such censuses for such purposes, and to the maximum extent that, the office considers feasible and appropriate.

(2) INTERIM REPORT ON SPECIAL CENSUS – Not later than ninety (90) days after the enactment of this Act, the National Statistics Office shall submit to the committees of Congress having legislative jurisdiction over the census a report which shall include –

(a) a summary of how the plans and preparations for carrying out the special censuses are proceeding;

(b) a brief description or outline of how the plans and preparations for carrying out the special census are proceeding;

(c) information identifying any experts, consultants, interest groups, or other persons outside the office who were consulted in connection with the special census

(3) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS – There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this Act.

SECTION 3. Separability Clause. - If any provision or part thereof, is held invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the law of the provision not otherwise affected shall remain valid and subsisting.

SECTION 4. Repealing Clause. - Any law, presidential decree or issuance, executive order, letter of instruction, administrative order, rule or regulation contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed, modified or amended accordingly.

SECTION 5. Effectivity Clause. - This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in at least two (2) newspapers of general circulation.

Approved.
