S.B. No. 1820

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The primary election law of the land, most commonly known as the Omnibus Election Code of the Philippines, does not provide for a clear and distinct provision regarding the filing of petition to annul or suspend proclamation of winning candidates.

In this regard, this representation intends to incorporate into said statute specific provision which would provide the grounds and bases for the filing of said petition to annul a proclamation, so as to finally address legal queries regarding this aspect of the electoral process.

Thus, urgent passage of this proposed legislation is hereby sought.
