AN ACT
STANDARDIZING THE SALARIES AND BENEFITS OF BARANGAY OFFICIALS,
AMENDING SECTION 393(N) OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 7160, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS
THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT CODE OF 1991

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 384, Chapter 1, Title 1, Book III of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991 states that the barangay, as the basic political unit, "serves as the primary planning and implementing unit of government policies, plans, programs, projects and activities in the community, and as a forum wherein the collective views of the people may be expressed, crystallized and considered, and where disputes may be amicably settled."

Given that barangays are in the front lines of government service, more often than not, its officials are expected to function beyond the normal working hours. However, even as they play a crucial role in government, they are not entitled to compensation accorded to regular government workers.

Thus, this bill proposes to provide elected barangay officials and appointed barangay personnel monthly salaries commensurate to their tasks and responsibilities, similar to those given to regular employees in government.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
