ARTICLE I
Title, Policy, Principles and Definition of Terms

1 SECTION 1. *Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Special Protections 2 against Online Sexual Abuse and Exploitation of Children (OSAEC) Law” or the Anti-3 OSAEC Law.

4 SECTION 2. *Declaration of State Policy and Principles. It is the policy of the State to 5 provide special protections to children from all forms of sexual violence, abuse and 6 exploitation especially those committed with the use of information and 7 communications Technology, provide sanctions for their commission and carry out 8 programs for the prevention, deterrence and intervention in situations of all online 9 sexual abuse and exploitation of children. The State shall intervene on behalf of the 10 child when acts of online sexual abuse and exploitation are committed by the parent,

1 caregiver, guardian, teacher or person having care or custody of the child. It is also 2 the policy of the state to protect, rehabilitate and assist in the reintegration of 3 children who have been victimized and gravely affected by the violations committed 4 against them in a manner that is gender-responsive and age-appropriate. Cultural 5 sensitivity shall likewise be given due consideration, insofar as it does not contradict 6 the primary aim of protecting women and children.

7 The State recognizes the vital role of information and communications technology in 8 the education, skills and growth and development of Filipino children. The State also 9 recognizes the inherent right of children to freedom of expression which includes the 10 freedom to seek, receive, and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of 11 frontiers in accordance with the rights of a child declared in the United Nations 12 Convention on the Rights of the Child. Further, the State is obligated to adopt the 13 protective measures provided in the signed Optional Protocol to the UN Convention 14 on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution, and 15 Child Pornography. Finally, the best interests of children shall be the paramount 16 consideration in all actions concerning them whether undertaken by public or private 17 social welfare institutions, courts of law, executive agencies, law enforcement 18 agencies, local government units, legislative bodies and private business enterprises 19 especially those related to the online safety and protection of children.

20 SEC. 3. Definition of Terms. –

21 A. Child - refers to a person below eighteen (18) years of age or those over 17 provision shall be liable for photo or video voyeurism as defined herein."

18 SECTION 7. *Syndicated child sexual abuse or exploitation. The crime of child 19 sexual abuse or exploitation is deemed committed by a syndicate if carried out by a 20 group of three (3) or more persons conspiring or confederating with one another.

21 SECTION 8. *Large-scale child sexual abuse or exploitation. If the crime was 22 committed against three (3) or more persons, it shall be considered large-scale child 23 sexual abuse or exploitation.

24 SECTION 9. *Safe Harbor Exception. – Access, possession and recording of any 25 child sexual abuse and exploitation material of any person for the purpose of 26 reporting to government authorities; legitimate investigation and administration of

1 the criminal justice system; and legitimate policy, scholarly and academic purposes
2 with requisite ethical clearance, shall not be considered as a violation of this Act.

3 SECTION 10. *Self-generated CSAEM. In cases of self-generated CSAEM, the 4 child producing the sexualized materials shall be considered a victim and not an 5 offender. The child victim shall be accorded the necessary treatment and services 6 under this Act and in existing laws.

7 ARTICLE III.

8 Prosecution and investigation of cases

9 SECTION 11. *Initiation of investigation. Law enforcement agencies are 10 mandated to immediately initiate investigation and counter-OSAEC-intelligence 11 gathering upon receipt of statements or affidavits from victims of OSAEC, or their 12 families, and other persons who have knowledge or information about violations of 13 this act, including the private sector.

14 Agencies that receive complaints of violations of this law shall develop both online 15 and face-to-face reporting mechanisms that are gender-sensitive, age-appropriate 16 and culturally sensitive to children, especially girls.

17 In investigating violations of this Act involving the use of the internet and other 18 digital platforms, a law enforcement officer may, upon a written order from the 19 regional trial court, track, intercept, view, monitor, surveil, listen to, and record by 20 technical or electronic means, any communications, information or messages, 21 including the procurement of content data, transmitted by means of a computer 22 system involving at least one person reasonably believed to have committed 23 violations under this Act.

24 The Order shall only be issued or granted upon written application of a law 25 enforcement officer, who shall be examined under oath or affirmation, and the 26 witnesses he/she may produce and the showing that (1) that there are reasonable

1 grounds to believe that any of the crimes enumerated hereinabove has been 2 committed, or is being committed, or is about to be committed; (2) that there are 3 reasonable grounds to believe that evidence that will be obtained is essential to the 4 conviction of any person for, or to the solution of, or to the prevention of, any such 5 crimes; and (3) that there are no other means readily available for obtaining such 6 evidence.

7 The Order shall only be effective for the length of time determined by the court, 8 which shall not exceed a period of ten (10) days from its issuance. The court issuing 9 the Order may, upon motion, extend its effectivity based only on justifiable reasons 10 for a period not exceeding ten (10) days from the expiration of the original period.

11 Victims of OSAEC who record the act of exploitation, abuse or violence against 12 him/her shall not be liable under the provisions of Republic Act No. 4200, or the 13 Anti-Wiretapping Act, and Republic Act No. 10175, or the Cybercrime Prevention Act 14 of 2012.

15 SECTION 12. *Prosecution. Offenses punishable under this Act are public crimes.
16 Any person who has personal knowledge of the commission of any offense under 17 this Act, such as the victim-survivor, the parents, spouse, siblings, legal guardian, 18 officer or social worker or representative of a licensed child-caring institution, officer 19 or social worker of the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), 20 barangay chairperson, at least three (3) concerned citizens where the violation 21 occurred, may file a complaint under this Act.

22 SECTION 13. *Venue. A criminal action arising from a violation of this Act shall be 23 filed where the offense was committed, or where any of its elements occurred, or 24 where the victim-survivor actually resides at the time of the commission of the 25 offense: provided, that the court where the criminal action is first filed shall acquire 26 jurisdiction to the exclusion of other courts. Where the victim-survivor is still a minor 27 at the time of trial, the case shall be heard in the chamber of the regional trial court 28 duly designated as a family court.

1 SECTION 14. *Affidavit of desistance. Cases involving OSAEC should not be 2 dismissed based on the affidavit of desistance executed by the victims or their 3 parents or legal guardians. Public and private prosecutors are directed to vigorously 4 oppose and manifest objections to motions for dismissal. Attempts to unduly 5 pressure the complainant to execute an affidavit of desistance shall be punishable 6 under this Act.

7 SECTION 15. *Immediate protection of children victims. In cases involving a 8 child, he or she shall immediately be placed under the protective custody of the 9 Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), pursuant to R.A. No. 7610.
10 In the regular performance of this function, the DSWD shall be free from any 11 administrative, civil or criminal liability. Custody proceedings shall be in accordance 12 with the provisions of Presidential Decree No. 603.

13 The child and his/her family members shall be entitled to protection as well as 14 preferential entitlement to the rights and benefits of witnesses under R.A. No. 6981, 15 otherwise known as "The Witness Protection, Security and Benefit Act", provided 16 that the family members possess all the qualifications and none of the 17 disqualifications under the said law.

18 The child shall also be considered as a victim of a violent crime defined under 19 Section 3(d) of R.A. No. 7309, otherwise known as "An Act Creating a Board of 20 Claims under the Department of Justice for Victims of Unjust Imprisonment or 21 Detention and Victims of Violent Crimes and for Other Purposes", so that the child 22 may claim compensation therein.

23 SECTION 16. *Referral pathway for OSAEC cases. There shall be an organized 24 and unified referral pathway for reporting, detecting, investigating, prosecuting and 25 providing of aftercare assistance and support in OSAEC cases. The National 26 Coordinating Center against Online Sexual Abuse and Exploitation of Children (NCC-27 OSAEC) shall develop a system and set of gender-responsive, child-friendly, victim-

1 centered and trauma-informed protocols for referring OSAEC cases and recording 2 and maintaining a unified database for the purpose of tracking and updating the 3 status and stages of investigation and prosecution of the same, consistent with 4 existing laws on the protection of the welfare of children. The NC-OSAEC shall also 5 develop a feedback mechanism for victim-survivors who have accessed the services 6 via this pathway.

7 SECTION 17. Confidentiality. All records and proceedings involving children from 8 the initial contact until the final disposition of the case shall be considered privileged 9 and confidential. The public shall be excluded during the proceedings and the 10 records shall not be disclosed directly or indirectly to anyone by any of the parties or 11 the participants in the proceedings for any purpose whatsoever. It is prohibited to 12 divulge the name of the child or any other information tending to establish his or 13 her identity. Where the testimony of the child is necessary, it shall be taken in 14 accordance with A.M. no. 004-07-SC or the Rules on the Examination of the Child 15 Witness.

16 Any form of child sexual abuse or exploitation material that is part of the court 17 records shall be subject to a protection order that provides as follows:

- 18 1. Any form of child sexual abuse and exploitation material may be viewed only 19 by the parties, their counsel, their expert witness, and guardian ad litem;
- 20 2. Neither form of child sexual abuse and exploitation material nor any portion 21 thereof shall be divulged to any other person, except as necessary for 22 investigation, prosecution, or trial;
- 23 3. No person shall be granted access to any form of child sexual abuse and 24 exploitation material unless he/she signs a writer affirmation that he/she has 25 read a copy of the protection order; that he/she submits to the jurisdiction of 26 the court with respect to the protective order; and that, in case of violation 27 thereof, he/she will be subject to the contempt power of the courts;

1 It shall be unlawful for any editor, publisher, reporter or columnist in case of printed 2 materials, announcer, producer or social media influencer or content creator, in case 3 of television and radio broadcasting and digital media, and producer and director of 4 the film in case of the movie industry, to cause any undue publicity that may result 5 in the further suffering of the child. Any person or agency involved in the reporting, 6 investigation or trial of cases under this Act shall refrain from any act or statement 7 that may be construed as blaming the victim or placing responsibility on the victim 8 for the offense committed against them.

9 SECTION 18. *Reasonable Accommodation for Children with Disabilities.

10 The DOJ and the DSWD shall develop guidelines, within ninety (90) days from 11 finalization of the Implementing Rules and Regulations of this Act and pursuant to 12 the UN Convention of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, for the provision, as far 13 as practicable, of necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments across all 14 stages of case management of OSAEC cases to ensure children with disabilities will 15 have access to justice.

16 The Supreme Court, in accordance with its rules and the UN Convention on the 17 Rights of Persons with Disabilities, shall issue guidelines for the provision, as far as 18 practicable, of necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments across all 19 stages of case management of OSAEC cases to ensure children with disabilities will 20 have access to justice.
