

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE)
REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
Third Regular Session)

SENATE

P.S. Res. No. 751

INTRODUCED BY: SENATOR EMMANUEL D. PACQUIAO

A RESOLUTION
COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING YUKA SASO FOR WINNING THE US
WOMEN'S OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF TOURNAMENT

WHEREAS, Yuka Saso won the 76th US Women's Open Championship at the Olympic Club in San Francisco, California on June 6, 2021;

WHEREAS, the 19-year old golf sensation made history with the tournament as she tied the record as the youngest US Women's Open champion in history;

WHEREAS, she also became the first Filipino player ever to win a US Open Golf major;

WHEREAS, the US Women's Open is one of the most prestigious golf tournaments and is the oldest of the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour's five major championship;

WHEREAS, Saso's distinctions warrant to be commended for bringing pride and honor to our country. Her victories inspire budding, home-grown athletes to likewise excel in international sporting events;

WHEREAS, the Philippine Senate also paid tribute to Saso's previous victory in the 2018 Asian Games and for making history as the first Filipino golfer to win a gold medal for the country in the women's individual event.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, as it hereby resolved, to commend and congratulate Yuka Saso for winning the coveted 76th US Women's Open Golf Championship.

Adopted,
