REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
First Regular Session

Senate Bill No. 988

INTRODUCED BY HON. MANNY VILLAR

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Under present laws, workers are entitled to health, safety and social welfare benefits (Articles 156--209, Labor Code, as amended; and P.D. 1146, as amended). They are also entitled to weekly rest periods (Article 91, Labor Code) to rejuvenate them both mentally and physically.

Under prevailing urban conditions, however, it appears that enjoyment by workers and their families of their rest days have been less than pleasurable. Even a cursory survey of the urban landscapes reveals that there are no accessible and affordable public places or parks where the workers and their families could enjoy themselves during their periods of rest and recreation. Under the present conditions, workers and their families are constrained to go "mallng" in the various metropolitan shopping centers whose open areas afford them some breathing spaces.

This Bill seeks to establish public recreational parks in the major urban centers as the government's initial response to the demand for such facilities.

Passage of this Bill is earnestly recommended.
