OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

7 JUL 24 P 3:16

SENATE
S. B. No. 1339

RECEIVED BY:

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 4 of Presidential Decree No. 968, also known as the Probation Law of 1976, provides that “no application for probation shall be entertained or granted if the defendant has perfected the appeal from the judgment of conviction.” The effect of such provision is to deny to one who appeals the right to apply for probation.

There are, however, instances where the judgment of conviction erroneously imposes a non-probationable penalty, in which case the accused appeals the judgment for the sole purpose of reducing the penalty within probationable limits. In one case, Francisco v. Court of Appeals, G.R. No. 108747, 16 April 1995, the Supreme Court, while conceding that in such cases the appeal “should not bar the accused from applying for probation,” nevertheless held that under the present state of the law, “appeal and probation are considered mutually exclusive” and, therefore, probation would still be unavailable to the accused. Iniquitous as this situation may appear, the law as it stands should be followed.

To remedy the iniquitous situation described above, this bill seeks to amend the Probation Law by adding an excepting clause in Par. 1, Sec. 4 thereof. The proposed amendment will give an accused the right to apply for probation despite his appeal from the judgment of conviction, if his appeal is for the sole purpose of reducing the penalty within probationable limits and the appellate court modifies the judgment by imposing a probationable penalty.*
