

FOURTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC) OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

7 (B) 16 26

SENATE
S. No. 1773

RECEIVED BY: _____

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution in Article XIV, Section 3, paragraph 2, provides that the State shall defend the right of children to assistance, including proper care and nutrition, and special protection from all forms of neglect, abuse, cruelty, exploitation and other conditions prejudicial to their development.

Furthermore, the Family Code in Article 105, paragraphs 3 and 4, provides that parents, as well as and their children, whether legitimate or illegitimate, are obliged to support each other.

In line with the aforesaid provisions, this bill aims to criminalize willful failure or refusal to pay predetermined child support obligations.

There are children, both legitimate and illegitimate, who are forced to live with one parent because their parents are not living together. Although the obligation to support a child is the responsibility of both parents, there are a number of parents – especially those who live apart from the child– who continuously refuse to financially support their children even if they have the capacity to do so.

Therefore, in order to deter irresponsible parents from evading their financial responsibility to their children, this bill aims to impose a penalty for such evasion.*

MIRIAM DEFENSOR SANTIAGO
