OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

7 OCT 16 1975

SENATE
S. No. 1758

RECEIVED BY: [Signature]

Introduced by Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The commercial use of telephones for providing phone-sex services has become a reality with the introduction of so-called party phones. In United States, phone-sex services are euphemistically referred to as "dial-a-porn" service providers. And in the U.S. such services-providers constitute a highly accessible but expensive medium of transmitting (or "accessing" for callers) lewd, lascivious, filthy or indecent messages.

There is no law in our country that punishes those who offer phone-sex services. We need this law to prevent the proliferation of phone-sex services, which do not only corrupt public morals, but also place an inordinate economic burden on the consumer because of their "pay per call arrangements."
