EXPLANATORY NOTE

The arrearages payable to the Filipino veterans continue to escalate perennially. From 1994 to 1998, the government owed the veterans a total amount of P10.9 billion in arrears. By the end of 2006, the Philippine Veterans Affairs Office (PVAO) has reported that the total estimated arrearages has already accumulated to P21 billion. This amount does not include the arrears in old-age pensions, death pensions and educational benefits amounting to P5.4 billion which the national government has been paying since 2006 until 2008.

In 1994, Republic Act No. 7696 entitled, "An Act Amending Certain Sections of Republic Act No. 6948 Otherwise Known As 'An Act Standardizing and Upgrading The Benefits For Military Veterans And Their Dependents'," was enacted to provide comprehensive benefits to war veterans, military retirees and their surviving spouses and dependents. Through the years, however, the national government was not able to fulfill its commitment to pay such benefits due to inadequate budgetary appropriations. Therefore, a plan must be put in place on how to settle these obligations.

This bill seeks to utilize the proceeds from the development, lease, or other use of government properties for the payment of these arrearages. In the process, the national government will accomplish its constitutional mandate of providing assistance to said beneficiaries without affecting the national budget.

In light of the foregoing, an urgent passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
