SENATE

S. NO. 275

Introduced by Senator Antonio "Sonny" F. Trillanes IV

EXPLANATORY NOTE

It is the duty of the State to protect its citizens from falling prey to unscrupulous individuals who employ technology through deceitful and unfair ways. This bill aims to protect consumers from the use of spyware and malware that are deceptively or surreptitiously installed on their computers.

No existing law provides for the regulation of computer spyware. This bill would prohibit a person or entity other than the authorized user of a computer owned by a person with actual knowledge, conscious avoidance of actual knowledge, or willfully, causing computer software to be copied onto the computer and using the software to (1) take control of the computer, as specified, (2) modify certain settings relating to the computer's access to or use of the Internet, as specified, (3) collect, through intentionally deceptive means, personally identifiable information, as defined, (4) prevent, without authorization, an authorized user's reasonable efforts to block the installation of or disable software, as specified, (5) intentionally misrepresent that the software will be uninstalled or disabled by an authorized user's action, or (6) through intentionally deceptive means, remove, disable, or render inoperative security, anti-spyware, or antivirus software installed on the computer.

Furthermore, this measure would also prohibit a person or entity who is not an authorized user from inducing an authorized user to install a software component by intentionally misrepresenting that it is necessary for security or privacy or in order to open, view, or play a particular type of content. It would prohibit a person or entity who is not an authorized user from deceptively causing the copying and execution on the computer of software components with the intent of causing an authorized user to use the components in a way that violates any of these prohibitions.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

ANTONIO "SONNY" F. TRILLANES IV
