EXPLANATORY NOTE

E.O. No. 292, a.k.a. "Administrative Code of 1987," Title 13, Chapter 1, Section 1, provides:

The State shall promote, encourage and develop tourism as a major national activity in which private sector investment, effort and initiative are fostered and supported, and through which socio-economic development may be accelerated, foreign exchange earned, international visitors offered the opportunity to travel to the Philippines and appreciate its natural beauty, history and culture, and Filipinos themselves enabled to see more of their country and imbued with greater pride in and commitment to the nation.

The tourism industry contributes to the economic growth of our country by generating foreign exchange earnings, employment opportunities and international goodwill. It also promotes the rich and colorful socio-cultural life of the Filipino people.

In order to realize the full potential of tourism as an important economic tool necessary for national development, the government should adopt and implement an integrated approach to tourism development.

Hence, this bill seeks to establish an intergovernmental task force for international visitor assistance to make the Philippines the premiere travel and tourism destination in the world.<sup>1</sup>
