SENATE
S.B. No. 2083

SECRETARY

Introduced by SENATOR PIA S. CAYETANO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The so-called Filipino Comfort Women suffered tremendously during their ordeal in the hands of the Japanese Imperial Army. They suffered more when they courageously came out in the open to tell the whole world about the dastardly acts committed against them. The Government, however, chose to remain silent about their plight and simply waited for the sought-after recognition and compensation from the Japanese Government, a foreign state over which we have neither influence nor control.

This Bill seeks to recognize the fate of these "comfort women" and alleviate their suffering through financial and health insurance assistance from the Government.

For these reasons, approval of this Bill is urgently sought.

SENATOR PIA S. CAYETANO

SENATE
S. B. No. 2083

Introduced by Senator PIA S. CAYETANO

AN ACT
PROVIDING FOR PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS TO COMFORT
