EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 27, article II of the 1987 Constitution provides that as a State Policy, "The State shall maintain honesty and integrity in public service and take positive and effective measure against graft and corruption."

Furthermore, Section 1, Article XI of the 1987 Constitution provides that, "Public office is a public trust. Public officers and employees must at all times be accountable to the people, serve them with utmost responsibility, integrity, loyalty, and efficiency, act with patriotism and justice, and lead modest lives."

It is the intent of this bill to encourage citizens to stand up and report alleged violations of law, improper use of governmental office, gross waste of funds, or any other abuse or gross neglect of duty on the part of an agency, public officer or employee, and private entity. Furthermore by protecting citizens who disclose wrongdoing from retaliatory acts, we hereby strengthen accountability and reduce corruption in the public and private sectors.

Hence, in the best interest of the Republic, the immediate approval of this bill is urgently sought.
