9 CHAPTER I

10 TITLE AND DECLARATION OF POLICY

11 SECTION 1. Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Magna Carta for 12 Homeowners”.

13 SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. – It is hereby declared the policy of the State to 14 uphold the constitutional right of the people to form unions, associations or societies, as 15 well as their right not to join such unions, associations or societies. as embodied under 16 Art III, Sec. 8 of the 1987 Constitution. Towards this end, the State recognizes and 17 promotes the rights of homeowners as individuals and as members of the society and 18 shall endeavor to make available resources and assistance that will help them fulfill 19 their roles in serving the needs and interests of their communities to complement the 20 efforts of local government units (LGUs) in providing vital and basic services to the 21 citizens, help implement local and national government policies, programs, rules and 22 ordinances, and, foster the growth and active participation of homeowners in the 23 development of the nation.

24 SEC. 3. Definition of Terms. – For purposes of this Act, the following terms 25 shall mean:

26 (1) “Association” refers to the homeowners’ association which is a non-stock, 27 non-profit corporation registered with the Housing and Land Use Regulatory Board 28 (HLURB), or one previously registered with the Home Insurance Guarantee Corp. (now

1 Home Guaranty Corp.) or the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), organized 2 by owners or purchasers of a lot in a subdivision/village or other residential real property 3 located within the jurisdiction of the association ; or awardees, beneficiaries, legal 4 occupants and/or lessees of a housing unit and/or lot in a government socialized or 5 economic housing or relocation project and other urban estates; or informal settlers as 6 defined under existing laws in the process of being accredited as beneficiaries or 7 awardees of ownership rights under the Community Mortgage Program (CMP), Land 8 Tenure Assistance (LTA) and other similar programs; wherein said owners, awardees 9 or beneficiaries, by virtue of ownership or some right over the property.

10 (2) "Association member" refers to a homeowner who is a member of the 11 homeowners' association where his/her housing unit or lot is situated.

12 (3) "Board" refers to the Board of Directors or Trustees of an association that 13 exercises, as a collegial body, all the powers, duties, and responsibilities relating to the 14 administration, management, and operation of an association, as defined in this Act 15 and other pertinent laws, rules and regulations;

16 (4) "Common area" refers to the property owned, or otherwise maintained, 17 repaired, administered in whole or in part by an association, including but not limited to 18 parks, playgrounds, clubhouses, multi-purpose halls or other facilities.

20 exercise of its powers as defined in this Act.

21 (6) "Economic housing" refers to a type of housing project with lower interest 22 rates and longer amortization periods, provided to moderately low-income families, as 23 defined under existing laws, rules and regulations.

24 (7) "Homeowner" refers to any of the following:

25 (a) An owner or purchaser of a lot in a subdivision/village within the purview of 26 Presidential Decree (PD) No. 957 and related laws;

27 (b) An awardee, beneficiary, occupant, or lessee of a unit, house and/or lot in a 28 government socialized or economic housing or relocation project and other urban 29 estates; or

30 (c) An informal settler in the process of being accredited as beneficiary or 31 awardee of ownership rights under the CMP, LTA, and other similar programs.

32 (8) "Non-member homeowner" refers to a homeowner who is not a member of 33 the association duly organized in the area where his/her housing unit or lot is situated.

1 (9) "Residential real property" refers to any real property, the use of which is 2 limited by law to primary residential or recreational purposes.

3 (10) "Simple majority" refers to fifty percent (50%) plus one (1) of the total 4 number of association members in good standing.

5 (11) "Socialized housing" refers to housing programs and projects covering 6 houses and lots or home lots only undertaken by the Government or the private sector 7 for the underprivileged and homeless citizens which shall include sites and services 8 development, long-term financing, liberalized terms on interest payments, and other 9 benefits in accordance with the provisions of Republic Act No. (RA) 7279, otherwise 10 known as the Urban Development and Housing Act of 1992 (UDHA).

11 (12) "Subdivision/Village" refers to a tract or parcel of land partitioned into 12 individual lots, with or without improvements thereon, primarily for residential purposes.

13 SEC. 4. Registration with HLURB. – An association of homeowners shall 14 register with the HLURB in order to acquire juridical personality.

15
16 CHAPTER II
17 HOMEOWNERS

18 SEC. 5. Right of A Homeowner Not to Join An Association. – A homeowner 19 has the right not to join the association where his/her housing unit or lot is situated.
20 However, he/she shall have the right to enjoy such basic services and facilities provided 21 by the association, subject to the payment of necessary fees and other pertinent 22 charges.

23 SEC. 6. Nature of Membership in Association. – Membership in an 24 association shall be voluntary, unless:

25 (1) it is required under the deed of restrictions or as annotation on the title of 26 the property;

27 (2) it is stipulated under the contract for the purchase of a lot in the 28 subdivision project; or

HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION

6 SEC. 12. *Rights and Powers of the Association. – In addition to the powers 7 and attributes of an association as an artificial being under the General Provisions of 8 the Corporation Code, an association has the following rights and may exercise the 9 following powers:

10 (1) Subject to consultation and with the approval of a simple majority of the 11 members, adopt and amend the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws, rules and 12 regulations, subject to existing laws and regulations;

13 (2) Subject to consultation and with the approval of a simple majority of the 14 members, prepare, adopt and amend budgets for revenues, expenditures and reserves;

15 (3) In behalf of its members, institute, defend, or intervene in litigation and/or 16 administrative proceedings affecting the welfare of the association and the community 17 as a whole;

18 (4) Regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement and modification of 19 common areas and cause additional improvements to be made as part of the common 20 areas;

21 (5) Subject to existing laws and regulations, limit access to or passage of 22 persons and vehicles through subdivision/village roads, for purposes of preserving 23 privacy, tranquility, internal security, safety and traffic order;

24 (6) Hire, discharge or contract with managing agents and other employees, 25 agents and independent contractors to ensure the full functioning and operation of the 26 association;

27 (7) Subject to consultation with and the approval of a simple majority of the 28 association members, acquire, hold, encumber and convey in its own name any right, 29 title to or interest in real or personal property;

30 (8) In the absence of a duly franchised local water utility company or 31 cooperative, administer and manage the waterworks system of the subdivision, if any, 32 which shall be turned over by the developer upon completion of the subdivision;

1 (9) Grant leases, concessions and authority to use common areas and 2 petition for or consent to the vacation of streets and alleys; Provided, That the said 3 grant of leases, concessions and authority shall not be applicable to access roads, 4 main interconnecting roads, alleys and sidewalks within the subdivision;

5 (10) Subject to consultation with and approval of a simple majority of the 6 association members, impose and collect any reasonable payment, fees, or charges for 7 the use, rental and/or operation of the common areas;

8 (11) Cause compliance with regard to height limitations on buildings, edifices, 9 or structures that may be built within the subdivision, in accordance with the National 10 Building Code, zoning laws, HLURB rules and regulations, and existing local 11 ordinances;

12 (12) Secure the prior approval of the majority of its members in allowing the 13 establishment of certain institutions such as, but not limited to, schools, hospitals, 14 markets, grocery stores and other similar establishments that will necessarily affect the 15 character of the subdivision/village in terms of traffic generation, and/or opening the 16 area to outsiders which may result in the loss of privacy, security, safety, and tranquility 17 to its residents, in accordance with the National Building Code, zoning laws, existing 18 local ordinances and HLURB rules and regulations; Provided, That such prior approval ✓ 19 shall not be necessary for the establishment of sari-sari stores, home industries and 20 similar small-scale business enterprises within the subdivision/village classified as 21 socialized housing;

22 (13) Petition for the creation of a separate barangay, independently or together 23 with neighboring subdivisions; Provided, That all the requirements of the Local 24 Government Code of 1991 are met; and 25 (14) Exercise any other power conferred by its By-Laws and HLURB rules and 26 regulations which are necessary for the governance and operation of the association.

27 SEC. 13. Board of Directors or Trustees. – The By-Laws of the association 28 shall provide for the qualifications and number of the directors or trustees that will 29 comprise the Board of Directors or Trustees, hereinafter referred to as the Board.

30 SEC. 14. Duties and Responsibilities of the Board. - In addition to the duties 31 and responsibilities stated in the By-Laws of the association, the Board shall have the 32 following duties and responsibilities:

33 (1) Maintain an accounting system using generally accepted accounting 34 principles, and keep books of accounts, which shall be open for inspection to any

1 homeowner and duly authorized representatives of government agencies upon request, 2 during reasonable hours on business days;

3 (2) Collect the fees, dues and assessments that may be provided for in the 4 By-Laws and approved by a majority of the homeowners;

5 (3) Collect reasonable charges for assessments, and after due notice and 6 hearing by the Board in accordance with the procedures as provided in the By-Laws, 7 and rules and regulations adopted by the Board, charge reasonable fines for late 8 payments and for violation of the By-Laws, rules, and regulations of the association, in 9 accordance with a previously established schedule adopted by the Board and furnished 10 to the homeowners;

11 (4) Propose measures to raise funds and the utilization of such funds and 12 submit the same for consideration by the association;

13 (5) Exercise such other powers as may be necessary and proper in 14 accordance with this Act and for the accomplishment of the purposes for which the 15 association was organized.

16 SEC. 15. Removal of A Director or Trustee. – Through a signed petition of a 17 simple majority of the association members in good standing, subject to verification and 18 validation of the HLURB, a director/trustee may be removed for causes provided in the 19 By-Laws of the association; Provided, That not more than a majority of the members of 20 the Board is sought to be removed. In case a majority of the members of the Board is 21 removed, it shall be considered a dissolution of the entire Board, in which case, 22 Section 16 hereof shall govern.

23 Within sixty (60) days after the removal of a director or trustee, an election shall 24 be called for the purpose of determining who shall hold office for the unexpired term of 25 the removed director/trustee.

26 SEC. 16. Dissolution of the Board. – Through a signed petition of two-thirds 27 (2/3) of the association members in good standing, subject to verification and validation 28 of the HLURB, the Board of the association may be dissolved for causes provided in 29 the By-Laws of the association.

30 Within sixty (60) days from the above dissolution, an election for a new Board 31 shall be called for the purpose of determining who shall hold office for the unexpired 32 term of the dissolved Board.

1           Until the new Board members shall have been elected and qualified, the HLURB 2 may designate an interim Board whose members shall not be eligible to run in the 3 election called for the above purpose.

4           SEC. 17. Prescriptive Period of Removing a Director or Trustee or 5 Dissolving a Board. – Sections 15 and 16 of this Act shall not be applicable if the 6 remaining term of office of the director or trustee or the Board, as applicable, is less 7 than three (3) months.

19 compensation of directors or trustees: Provided, That the term of office of the members 20 of the Board shall not exceed two (2) years;

21           (7) The qualifications, positions, duties, election or appointment, and 22 compensation of other officers and employees of the association: Provided, That the 23 term of office of the other officers shall not exceed two (2) years;

24           (8) The time, place and manner of calling and conducting regular or special 25 meetings of the directors or trustees;

26           (9) The required quorum in meetings of the board of directors or trustees;

27           (10) The grounds and procedure for removal of director or trustee, and the 28 manner of filling up vacancies in the Board;

29           (11) The grounds and procedure for dissolution of the Board, and the manner 30 of reconstituting the Board;

31           (12) The requirements and manner of voting by proxy;

1           (13) The actions for limiting, broadening or denying the right to vote, and the 2 extent thereof;

3           (14) The designation of conditions under which and the time when voting rights 4 may be exercised;

5           (15) The designation of the presiding officer at meetings of directors or 6 trustees and members;

7           (16) The time for holding the regular election of directors or trustees and the 8 mode or manner of giving notice thereof;

9           (17) The creation of election, grievance and audit committees, and such other 10 committees which the association may deem necessary; as well as a conciliation or 11 mediation mechanism for the amicable settlement of disputes among members, 12 directors or trustees, officers and committee members of the association;

13           (18) The dues and fees to be imposed on a regular basis and the manner in 14 which the same may be imposed and/or increased;

15           (19) Special assessments;

16           (20) The method of adopting, amending, repealing and abrogating the By-laws;

17           (21) The list of acts constituting an offense/violation by its officers and the 18 corresponding penalties therefor;

19           (22) The penalties for violation of the By-Laws;

20           (23) Such other matters necessary for the proper or convenient transaction of 21 its corporate business and affairs.

22           SEC. 19. General Meeting of an Association. – The general meeting of an 23 association shall be held once a year on such date fixed in the By-Laws. Written notice 24 of the general meeting, including the agenda, shall be sent to all members at least two 25 (2) weeks prior to the meeting, unless a different period is required by the By-Laws.

26           SEC. 20. Special Meetings of an Association. – The Board may call special 27 membership meetings at any time whenever it deems necessary, or as provided in the 28 By-Laws. A written notice, including the agenda shall be sent to all members at least 29 one (1) week prior to the meeting, unless otherwise provided in the By-Laws.

30           SEC. 21. Quorum Requirement. - A quorum in general membership meetings 31 shall be a simple majority of the members, unless otherwise provided for in the By-32 Laws.

1           SEC. 22. Voting Requirement. – Association members may vote in person or 2 by proxy in all meetings of the association. In case of the latter, authorization to such 3 proxies shall be in writing duly signed by the member, and filed with the association 4 Secretary before the scheduled meeting shall be valid only for the date of the meeting 5 for which it is intended.

6           SEC. 23. Regular Elections of an Association. – Regular elections shall be 7 held on the date fixed by the By-Laws; Provided, however, That there shall be a regular 8 election every two (2) years.

9           The By-Laws shall contain the date, manner and general procedures for the 10 conduct of elections.

11           SEC. 24. Referendum, Recall and Other Initiatives. – The association may, 12 by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all its members in good standing, subject to the 13 qualifications set forth in Sec. 6 (2) hereof, call for a referendum, recall or other 14 initiatives. The procedure, manner and grounds for the holding of the same shall be 15 provided for in the By-Laws.

16           SEC. 25. Financial and Other Records of an Association. – The association 17 shall observe the following, with regard to its financial and other records:

18           (1)     The association shall keep financial and other records sufficient in detail 19 to enable it to fully declare to each member and interested party the true statement of 20 its financial status. All original copies of financial and other records of the association, 21 including but not limited to checks, bank records, and invoices, in whatever form they 22 are kept, are the properties of the association and shall be kept in the association office 23 or by a duly authorized officer in case there is no association office.

24           (2)     All records of the association, including the names and addresses of 25 owners and other occupants of the lots, shall be available for examination by all 26 owners, holders of mortgages on the lots, and their respective authorized agents upon 27 reasonable advanced notice, during normal working hours at the office of the 28 association.

29           (3)     A financial statement of the association shall be prepared annually by an 30 auditor, the treasurer and/or an independent certified public accountant within forty five 31 (45) days from the end of the accounting period; to be posted in the association office, 32 bulletin boards, or other conspicuous places within the subdivision/village, and to be 33 submitted to the HLURB.

1           (4)    The funds of the association shall be kept in accounts in the name of the 2 association and shall not be joined with the funds of any other association, or any 3 person responsible for the custody of such funds.

4           SEC. 26. Relationship with LGUs. – Homeowners’ associations shall 5 complement, support and strengthen LGUs in providing vital services to its members 6 and help implement local government policies, programs, ordinances, and rules.

7           Associations are encouraged to actively cooperate with LGUs in furtherance of 8 their common goals and activities for the benefit of the residents of the 9 subdivisions/villages and its environs.

10          Where the LGUs lack resources to provide for basic services, the associations 11 shall endeavor to tap the means to provide for the same. In recognition of the 12 associations’ efforts to assist the LGUs in providing such basic services, association 13 dues and income derived from the rentals of their facilities shall be tax-exempt: 14 Provided, That such income and dues will be used for the maintenance of the 15 cleanliness, safety and security of their respective subdivisions/villages and other basic 16 services needed by the members.

17          LGUs shall hold public consultations with the members of the affected 18 associations, or at least their officers, where proposed rules, zoning and other 19 ordinances, projects and/or programs affecting their jurisdiction and surrounding vicinity 20 are to be implemented prior to the effectivity or implementation of such rules, zoning, 21 ordinances, projects or programs.

22          Such public consultations shall conform to the manner as specified in Rule XI, 23 Art. 54 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations of R.A. 7160 otherwise known as 24 the Local Government Code of 1991.

25          SEC. 27. Relationship with National Government Agencies. – The 26 associations shall complement, support and strengthen the efforts of the national 27 government agencies in providing vital services to its members and help implement the 28 national government policies and programs.

29          Associations are encouraged to actively cooperate with national government 30 agencies in the furtherance of their common goals and activities for the benefit of the 31 residents of the subdivisions and its environs.

32          National government agencies shall consult the associations where proposed 33 rules, projects and/or programs may affect their welfare.
