S. B. No. 173

Introduced by Senator Sergio Osmeña III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article XIII, Section 3 of the Philippine Constitution provides as follows:

"SEC. 3. The State shall afford full protection to labor, local and overseas, organized and unorganized, and promote full employment and equality of employment and opportunities for all."

This constitutional mandate is echoed and amplified in the Labor code as follows:

"SEC. 3. Declaration of Basic Policy. - The State shall afford protection of labor, promote full employment, ensure equal work opportunities regardless of sex, race, or creed, and regulate the relations between workers and employers."

This bill seeks to address the absence of laws implementing this constitutional mandate, and ensuring legal protection against discrimination as far as pre-employment screening, apprenticeship and training, labor relations, and promotions to supervisory and managerial positions are concerned.

Equal access to employment is the backbone of a vigorous economy that maximizes the productive potential of its foremost source of wealth - its human resources.

Equal opportunities is the cornerstone of a truly democratic society that respects the value of every individual, his right to promote his own individual welfare, and to contribute to the common good.

In view of the foregoing, early passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
