

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC ) OF THE PHILIPPINES )
First Regular Session )

SENATE
S. B. NO. 228

---

Introduced by Senator Maria Lourdes Nancy S. Binay

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Since the enactment of Republic Act No. 9262, or the Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004 (“VAWC Law”), women and their children have been provided with additional legal alternatives and protection against abusive conduct and violence. However, the law has not taken into consideration the prevalent and widespread reach of the internet and communications technology.

With the ongoing development in information and communications technology, the general public has gained another medium of expression, both responsibly and irresponsibly. More than a form of communication, social media was used in several instances as a mode of disseminating scandals involving both television personalities and private individuals. While Republic Act No. 9995 or the Anti-Photo and Video Voyeurism Act of 2009, sought to prevent further acts of said nature from permeating the various medium of information and communications technology, the said law failed to address the form of violence brought on victims of such scandals, by reason of their special relationships with their assailants.

In this regard, the proposed amendment of the VAWC Law includes electronic violence against women and to offer protection to women in the form of E-Vaw Protection Orders.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly recommended.
