S.B. No. 294

RECEIVED BY: JR

Introduced by Senator Ramon Bong Revilla, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The freedom to choose and exercise one's religion is a fundamental right recognized by the State and guaranteed by our Constitution. While the majority of Filipinos are Christians, we cannot discount the fact that many Filipinos have embraced Islam as their religion.

In keeping with the spirit of respect and recognition for our Muslim brothers and sisters, this representation has introduced this legislation, which seeks to institute a Halal system for certification and accreditation for food, non-food and services consumed and patronized by the Muslim community.

By doing so, we not only show our genuine concern for the safety and welfare of Muslim populace but also our sensitivity as a nation to the desire to unite all Filipinos.

I therefore appeal for the immediate enactment of this measure.

AN ACT
ESTABLISHING THE GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE PHILIPPINE HALAL SYSTEM, CREATING FOR THE PURPOSE THE PHILIPPINE HALAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL AND CONVERTING THE SAME INTO A BOARD AFTER THE TRANSITION PERIOD, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

Section 1. Title. - This Act shall be known as the “Halal Act of 2013.”

Section 2. Declaration of Policy. - It is the policy of the State to protect and promote the right of the people to health and to the free exercise of religion. Towards this end, the State shall ensure that the religious practices of the Islamic community are respected, safeguarded and promoted by institutionalizing a Halal certification and accreditation system for food, non-food and service products consumed and patronized by Muslims.

It shall also be the purpose of this Act to institute the Halal system in order to promote Philippine Halal products and services for export.

Section 3. Definition of Terms. - As used in this Act:

- a. Shariah Law - means the Islamic Law based on the Al-Q-uw Al-Hadith (Traditions of the Messenger of Allah), Ijma (Consensus of Islamic Scholars) and Qiyas (Legal Deduction or Analogy) according to the Shafei or any one of the Hanafi, Maliki or Hanbali Schools of Thought which have been practiced by countries where these guidelines have been implemented.
- b. Halal - means “lawful,” as pertaining to food or products permitted for human consumption under Shariah Law.
- c. Carrion - as defined by Shariah Law means the flesh of swine and dogs; flesh of dead animals that have been sacrificed to idols; flowing blood; flesh partly consumed by beasts and buds of prey; and dead or decaying flesh of animals felled by strangulation, beating or goring.
- d. Najjis - as defined by Shariah Law means things that are themselves filthy and cannot be cleaned like: pork, blood and carrion, as well as lawful food that has been contaminated or has come in contact with filth.

Section 4. General Guidelines. - There shall be established for the food, beverage, cosmetics, garments and textile, and other concerned industries the following general guidelines on the preparation, handling, storage and verification of Halal products to serve as basic requirements for certification as well as the accreditation of Halal abattoirs, outlets and other service establishments:

- a. The food or product, or their ingredients, does not contain any components of animals and carrion that are prohibited under Shariah Law, or animals that are not slaughtered according to Shariah Law.
- b. The food or product does not contain ingredients that are considered Najis by Shariah Law.
- c. The food or product is not prepared, processed or manufactured using equipment that has been contaminated with Najis.
- d. During its preparation, processing, storage or transportation, the food or product is fully separated from, and does not come in contact with, any other food or product that has been decreed Najis by Shariah Law or does not meet the requirements stated in items (a), (b) or (c) above.
- e. Service establishments such as, but not limited to, hotels, restaurants, resorts and similar service facilities purposely established for and catering to Muslim patrons and abattoirs, factories, and similar establishments purposely producing Halal goods shall conform to the national standards on Halal certification and accreditation.
- f. Labels of products that are certified Halal shall contain the word "Halal" or its equivalent term and should not be used in ways which could give rise to doubt about the safety of similar food or claims that halal foods are nutritionally superior to, or healthier than, other foods.

These guidelines shall be used together with the country's existing provisions of law on the preparation, processing, manufacturing of food and non-food and other products in accordance with health, hygiene and sanitation standards and good manufacturing practices.

Section 5. Philippine Halal Executive Council. - A Philippine Halal Executive Council, hereinafter referred to as the Council, is hereby created and shall exist for a transitory period of five (5) years pending its transformation into the Philippine Halal Certification and Accreditation Board established under Section 8 hereof.

The Council shall be chaired by the Secretary of the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and co-chaired by the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture (DA). The Executive Director of the Office on Muslim Affairs shall be the Vice-chairman and the Chief Operating Officer. The Council shall have as members the following representatives:

Section 6. Function of the Council. - The Council shall establish the certification scheme for Halal food and non-food products and services and the accreditation system for establishments engaged in the manufacture, distribution and provision of the same and shall oversee the initial implementation of both programs. For this purpose, the Council shall issue Halal certification and/or accreditation which shall be valid for a period of one (1) year and renewable every year thereafter.

The Council shall promulgate such rules and regulations necessary for the effective implementation of this Act.

Section 7. Halal Certification and Accreditation. - The system guidelines established by the Council shall be called the Philippine Halal Certification and Accreditation Standards, hereinafter referred to as the Standards.

The Standards shall provide the specific guidelines for a comprehensive and integrated Philippine Halal certification and accreditation system that will govern the extraction, preparation, processing, manufacture and production, packaging, labeling, transportation, storage, marketing and distribution of Halal foods and products as well as the accreditation of Halal abattoirs, outlets, hotels, restaurants and concerned service establishments.

The Standards shall conform to existing international standards and guidelines on Halal.

The Council shall submit a final copy of the Standards to the President and to Congress within one (1) year from its creation.

Section 8. Transition Period. - The Council shall be deemed abolished five (5) years from its creation and shall be replaced by the Philippine Halal Certification and Accreditation Board, hereinafter referred to as the Board, which shall undertake the functions of the Council and continue to oversee the implementation of the Standards and this Act, The Board shall be an independent autonomous body, attached to the Office of the President, and shall be subject to existing laws, rules and regulations.

Section 9. Composition of the Board. - The Board shall be headed by a Chairman and assisted by two (2) Vice-Chairmen, all appointed by the President. The representatives from agencies in the defunct Council shall automatically constitute the Technical Advisory Committee of the Board.

The Chairman shall be the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 10. Board Secretariat. - The Board shall have a Secretariat, herein created, headed by an Executive Director who shall assist the Chairman in the day-to-day operations.
