EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution provides that, to wit:

"Section 14. (2) In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall be presumed innocent until the contrary is proved, x x x"

Presentation to the public or media of any person suspected of committing a crime prior to the filing of formal charges against him violates the constitutional right of such person to be presumed innocent. It unduly subjects the suspect to public ridicule and scorn without due process.

To address the problem, this bill proposes that any person who shall violate the said constitutional right shall be held criminally and civilly liable.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is earnestly requested
