SENATE

S. B. No. 591

RECEIVED BY: ji

Introduced by Senator FRANCIS G. ESCUDERO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

To date, there are no means with which to protect public officials from individuals bringing malicious accusations at them, yet the Revised Penal Code provides aggravated criminal liability for any public officer found taking advantage of his position. There should be a counter-balance to this law, otherwise anyone can just falsely accuse a public official of a crime without fear of prosecution except for a counter-suit. Moreover and in such cases, the defendant, being a public officer, will have to suffer loss of integrity (which he may never regain regardless of the outcome of the case). More importantly, the public official may be hindered from doing his duties competently.

In the end it is the public who ultimately suffers. It is a waste of the government's time and money to investigate these false accusations only to dismiss them later on. This bill punishes false accusers of government officials so that it may serve as a deterrent to the former, who may use the complaint to disparage and embarrass the later.

Hence, the passage of this bill is immediately sought.
