EXPLANATORY NOTE

Tourism is a fast-growing industry in the Philippines. In fact, as of 2013, tourism is being eyed as one of the forerunners for the country's economic growth. It is expected to generate a significant number of local employment opportunities. As such, there is a need to strengthen tourism safeguards set forth in Republic Act No. 9593, otherwise known as the "Tourism Act of 2009."

One of the concerns raised by local government units where tourism is a significant industry is the lack of a permanent position for a tourism officer. Section 42 of R.A. 9593 explicitly mandates that a permanent position for tourism officers be created in local government units where tourism is a significant industry. However, Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the "Local Government Code of 1991," contains no such provision in its exclusive list of officers for every local government unit.

The lack of a specific amendatory clause in R.A. 9593 resulted in the failure to establish a permanent position for tourism officers despite the need therefor, as stated by local government units. The proposed legislation intends to address this issue by amending the relevant provisions of R.A. 7160. The present bill will promote the growth of the tourism industry by strengthening grass-root regulation and promotion of tourism in the country.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

MANUEL "LITO" M. LAPID
