Senate Bill No. 973

[Handwritten signature]

INTRODUCED BY SEN. JINGGOY EJERCITO ESTRADA

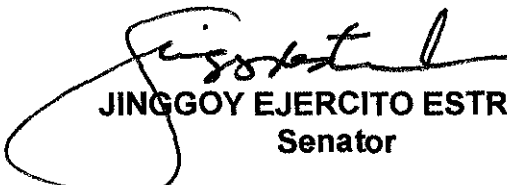

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution provides in Article III Section 1 that: "No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor shall any person be denied equal protection of the law." This constitutional guarantee to life encompasses not just the protection of the right to be alive or security against physical harm. It includes the right to a decent standard of living thereby ensuring a person's economic well-being and dignity. One way of upholding this right is to provide the individual an opportunity for gainful employment to enable himself to earn a living.

Such opportunity for gainful employment, however, remains the domain of certain privileged sectors. The Muslims and tribal Filipinos have not only been looked down socially but they have been largely deprived of equal employment opportunities, as well. Although in theory they enjoy the same rights with other Filipinos, they are actually denied the necessary training and access to compete for the technical or higher management jobs.

This bill seeks to correct this injustice in our society today. For the State to effectively "promote a just and dynamic social order that will ensure the prosperity and independence of the nation and free the people from poverty through policies that provide social services, promote full employment, a rising standard of living, and improved quality of life for all," as mandated by Article II, Section 9 of the Constitution, we must not forget our Muslim and tribal Filipino brothers. If the State sincerely recognizes and promotes the rights of the indigenous cultural minorities within the framework of national unity and development (Article 11, Section 22 of the Constitution), and for Congress to give higher priority to the enactment of measures that protect and enhance the right of all people to human dignity, reduce social, economic and political inequalities, and remove cultural inequalities by equitably diffusing wealth and political power for the common good (Article XIII, Section 1 of the Constitution), then, strong concrete, affirmative, legislative actions must be taken.

This bill, therefore, seeks to ensure equal job opportunities to the Muslim and tribal Filipinos, and at the same time give them preferential treatment in employment in the regions where they are predominant.
