SENATE

Senate Bill No. 1225

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR JOSEPH VICTOR G. EJERCITO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Global trend suggests that the people regardless of nationality or ethnic origin should be aware of the basic human rights of each individual ranging from the right to life, liberty, food, shelter, education, and among others. In fact, international treaties, covenants, agreements, laws were crafted, passed and signed by different States just to make sure that the basic precepts of these international laws and agreement will be observed and enforced by the concurring States.

In the Philippines, albeit the fact that our government has been a signatory to a number of these covenants and treaties, we still have problems in terms of observance and enforcement as human rights abuses still rampant throughout the country. Many of our countrymen are passive to report human rights abuses because of fear, ignorance and lack of support from the government.

No less than the 1987 Philippine Constitution under Article XIII, Section 18 (5) and (6), succinctly provides, that:

"(5) Establish a continuing program of research, education, and information to enhance respect for the primacy of human rights."

"(6) Recommend to Congress effective measures to promote human rights and to provide for compensation to victims of violations of human rights, or their families."

Thus, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
