Senate Bill No. 1956

RECEIVED BY: Ji

INTRODUCED BY SEN. JINGGOY EJERCITO ESTRADA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Keeping the entire barangay clean, orderly and safe is just a few of their tasks. Barangay Tanods are essentially the peacekeeping arm of the Barangay. For those subdivisions, residential areas and other communities that cannot afford several uniformed security guards, these Tanods serve as the main security force in the area. Often their services and dedication to the community are neglected and not appreciated as shown by lack or complete absence of benefits given them.

This bill, therefore, seeks to cure this political inequality by granting them additional benefits to augment their small salaries, and supply them with needed assistance, such as free legal assistance from the government for cases filed against them in the performance of their duties, and 50% discounts on school tuition and matriculation fees of their legitimate and legally adopted children, among others.

It is fervently hoped that with the passage of this bill, we can show our appreciation for the dedication and service of our Tanods, faithfully render.

In view of the foregoing, early passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
