

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC) OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

Senate
Office of the Secretary

SENATE

Senate Bill No. 1982

RECEIVED BY: f

INTRODUCED BY SEN. JINGGOY EJERCITO ESTRADA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Men and women are fundamentally equal. Thus, Section 14 of Article II of the 1987 Constitution provides that the State recognizes the role of women in nation building and shall ensure the fundamental equality before the law of women and men. It is the duty of the State to ensure their equality before the law in all aspects of national life by rectifying or ending all practices and systems that are disadvantageous to women or discriminate against them by reason merely of sex where it is not a relevant factor in making a distinction.

Under the provisions of the New Family Code, a married woman is not specifically granted option to use her maiden name and surname; and in cases of legal separation has been granted, she is not allowed to use her maiden name and surname either.

Hence, the approval of this bill is earnestly urged for the advancement of women in Philippine society. By allowing Filipino women to retain their surnames as part of their individuality, even after marriage or legal separation, we shall be eliminating historical inequality.
