S.B. No. 969

Introduced by Senator Jinggoy Ejercito Estrada

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The success of the Philippines as host country and as overall second place within second place winner with 91 gold medals in 1991 heightened the urgency and necessity of a national institution and nation-wide network for quality education and training in accord with international standards of sports performance in competitive events.

This bill seeks to establish a National Academy of Sports to train our athletes with a capability for the gold and to develop a sports manpower corps as the source and reserve pool in training the best amongst our athletes. The Academy will also train the educators and coaching-refereeing corps to ensure a continuing stream of top athletes and the best educators for sports development. The Academy will be an attached agency of the Philippine Sports Commission.

A nation-wide network is contemplated comprising satellite-training centers, a consortium of educational institutions for degree and non-degree programs, local government-sponsored palaros, and linkages with academe and international organizations related to sports development and education.

As an attached agency of the Philippine Sports Commission, there is an assurance that the National Academy is in the mainstream of governing policies and programs and that it will be a critical component for the Philippines to be in competition for the gold and other medals because of the continuing training and education of a corps of top athletes and the best coaches, referees and trainers.

Moreover, with the National Academy, physical education as taught in schools will be given the attention and priority status it deserves. In addition teachers and instructors of physical education who will be part of the degree and non-degree program of the Academy will gain and deserve the recognition and importance they deserve and should get.

Early passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
