RESOLUTION
CONGRATULATING AND COMMENDING PHILIPPINE NAVY
ENSIGN MAYCEE ANGGA FOR RECEIVING THE BEST
INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AWARD AT THE BRITANNIA
ROYAL NAVAL COLLEGE

WHEREAS, the Philippine Senate has on several occasions lauded the exemplary achievement of our uniformed personnel in the military service;

WHEREAS, on August 11, 2016, Philippine Navy Ensign Maycee Angga ("Ensign Angga") was given the Best International Student Award by the prestigious Britannia Royal Naval College (BRNC) in Dartmouth, United Kingdom, during its passing-out-parade (graduation), besting 131 other naval officers;

WHEREAS, the world-renowned BRNC was established in 1863 as the initial officer training establishment of the British Royal Navy. The physical and academic training course at the BRNC is an intensive thirty (30) week program which focuses on General Militarization Education, Command Leadership and Management, Defense Diplomacy and Operations, and Basic Sea Survival, among others<sup>1</sup>;

WHEREAS, Ensign Angga, who hails from Orion, Bataan, is the first Philippine naval officer to attend and complete the course at the BRNC and the first female naval officer to receive an international student award. She is also the lone female officer among the international (i. e., non-UK) cadets from Albania, the Bahamas, Egypt,
