SENATE BILL NO. 1402

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR JOSEPH VICTOR G. EJERCITO

AN ACT
PROCLAIMING THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PATIENTS, PROVIDING A GRIEVANCE MECHANISM THEREOF AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Every person shall be given appropriate health care based on their needs and must not be deprived of their right without discrimination regardless of their social status.

Thus, this bill seeks to ensure the rights of Filipino people to proper healthcare, protect their wellbeing, and instill health consciousness among them. As part of the society, it is only just to provide them with a decent quality health care they deserve without prejudice. All patients must be treated fairly and equally, human dignity, convictions, integrity, individual needs and culture shall be respected, especially to those who are underprivileged who doesn't have the means to afford one. Patients' needs to be informed as well insofar their rights and moral obligations are concerned, through the Department of Health, upon the enactment of this act, it is their duty to conduct a nationwide campaign to raise awareness of the people's right as patients.

Therefore, with that said being, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

- 23 a. Right to Good Quality Health Care and Humane Treatment - Every 24 person has a right to a continuity of good quality Health Care without 25 discrimination and within the limits of the resources, manpower and 26 competence available for health and medical care. In the course of such 27 care, his human dignity, convictions, integrity, individual needs and 28 culture shall be respected.
29

30 If a Patient cannot immediately be given treatment that is 31 medically necessary, he shall be informed of the reason for the delay 32 and be treated in accordance with his best interests: Provided, that the 33 treatment applied shall be in accordance with generally accepted 34 medical principles.
35

1 Emergency Patients shall be extended immediate medical care 2 and treatment without requiring, as a prerequisite thereof, any 3 pecuniary consideration.
4

5 b. Right to Dignity - The Patient's dignity, culture and value shall be 6 respected at all times in medical care and teaching. Likewise, terminally 7 ill patients shall be entitled to humane terminal care to make dying as 8 dignified and comfortable as possible.
9

10 c. Right to be Informed of His Rights and Obligations as a Patient - 11 Every person has the right to be informed of his rights and obligations 12 as a Patient. In line with this, the Department of Health, in coordination 13 with Health Care Providers, professional and civic groups, the media, 14 health insurance corporations, people's organizations and local 15 government organizations, shall launch and sustain a nationwide 16 information and education campaign to make known to the people their 17 rights as Patients, as provided in this Act. It shall also be the duty of 18 Health Care Institutions to inform Patients of their rights as well as of 19 the institution's rules and regulations that apply to the conduct of the 20 Patient while in the care of such institution, These rights and rules and 21 regulations shall be posted in a bulletin board conspicuously placed in a 22 Health Care Institution
23

24 d. Right to Choose His Physician / Health Institution - The Patient is free 25 to choose the services of a physician or health institution of his choice 26 except when he chooses to be confined in a charity ward, In this case, 27 the attending physician shall be the consultant under whose service the 28 patient was admitted as appearing in the Doctor's Order Sheet of the 29 Medical Record, the Patient shall have the right to seek a second 30 opinion and subsequent opinions, if necessary, from another physician 31 or health institution, and to change his physician or health institution, 32

33 e. Right to Informed Consent - The Patient has a right to self-34 determination and to make free decisions regarding himself/herself, 35 however, the attending physician shall inform the Patient of the I 36 consequences of his/her decisions.

1 A Patient who is mentally competent and is of legal age, or in his 2 incapacity or age of minority, his legal representative, has a right to a 3 clear explanation, in layman's terms, of all proposed or contemplated 4 procedures, whether diagnostic or therapeutic, including the identity 5 and professional circumstances of the person or persons who will 6 perform the said procedure or procedures. The explanation shall 7 include the amount of information necessary and indispensable for him 8 to intelligently give his consent, including, but not limited to, the 9 benefits, risk, side effects and the probability of success or failure, as a 10 possible consequence of said proposed procedure or procedures, 11 including the implications of withholding consent. In the explanation, 12 the comprehensive ability of the patient shall also be considered, taking 13 into account his level of education, the dialect or language that he 14 speaks and understands, and if possible, with the use of anatomic 15 sketch or any materials or visual aids that may aid the Patient, or his 16 legal representative, in fully understanding the proposed procedure or 17 procedures.

18 19 The right to informed consent shall likewise consider the 20 voluntariness in which the Patient or his/her legal representative has 21 given his/her consent, seeing to it that the Patient or his legal 22 representative was allowed to ask questions, or that he/she is given the 23 chance to consult his/her kin, or to seek another expert opinion. If the 24 Patient is unconscious or is unable to express his/her will, informed 25 consent must be obtained whenever possible from a legal 26 representative; Provided however, that when medical intervention is 27 urgently needed, the consent of the patient may be presumed; Provided 28 further, that a physician should always try to save the life of a Patient 29 who is unconscious due to suicide attempt.

30
31 In the case of a Patient who is legally incompetent or is a minor, 32 the consent of a legal representative is required; Provided however, that 33 the Patient must be involved in the decision making process to the 34 fullest extent allowed by his mental capacity. If the legally incompetent 35 Patient can make rational decisions, his/her decisions must be 36 respected, and he/she has the right to forbid disclosure of such 37 information to his/her legal representative.

1 If the patient's legal representative forbids treatment, but, in the 2 opinion of the physician, it is contrary to the patient's best interest, the 3 physician may challenge this decision in court; Provided however , that 4 in emergency cases, the physician shall act in the patient's best interest; 5 Provided further, that in emergency cases where there is no one who 6 can give consent on the patient's behalf, the physician can perform any 7 emergency diagnostic or treatment procedure in the best interest of the 8 patient.

9
10 f. Right to Refuse Diagnostic and Medical Treatment - The Patient has 11 the right to refuse diagnostic and medical treatment procedures, 12 provided that the following conditions are satisfied;

- 13
14 1. The Patient is of legal age and is mentally competent; 15 2. The Patient is informed of the medical consequences of his/her 16 refusal;
17 3. The Patient releases those involved in his care from any obligation 18 relative to the consequences of his/her decision; and 19 4. The Patient's' refusal will not jeopardize public health and safety.

20 21 g. Right to Refuse Participation in Medical Research - The Patient has 22 the right to be advised of plans to involve him/her in medical research 23 that may affect the care or treatment of his/her condition. Any 24 proposed research shall be performed only upon the written informed 25 consent of the Patient.

26
27 h. Right to Religious Belief and Assistance - The Patient has the right to 28 receive spiritual and moral comfort, including the help of a priest or 29 minister of his/her chosen religion. He/she also has the right to refuse 30 medical treatment or procedures which may be contrary to his religious 31 beliefs, subject to the limitations described in paragraph 6 of this 32 Section.

33
34 i. Right to Privacy and Confidentiality - The patient has the right to 35 privacy and protection from unwarranted publicity. The right to 36 privacy shall include the patient's right not to be subjected to exposure, 37 private or public, either by photography, publications, video-taping, 38 discussion, or by any other means that would otherwise tend to reveal

1 his person and identity and the circumstances under which he was, he 2 is, or he will be, under medical or surgical care or treatment.

3
4 The Patient and his/her legal representative has the right to be 5 Informed by the physician or his/her legal representative of the 6 patient's continuing Health Care requirements following discharge, 7 including instructions about home medications, diet, physical activity 8 and other pertinent information.

9
10 All identifiable information about a patient's health status, 11 medical condition, diagnosis, prognosis and treatment, and all other 12 information of a personal kind, must be kept confidential even after 13 death; Provided, that descendants may have a right of access to 14 information that will inform them of their health risks.

15
16 All identifiable Patient data must also be protected. The 17 protection of the data must be appropriate as to the manner of its 18 storage. Human substance from which identifiable data can be derived 19 must be likewise protected.

20
21 Confidential information can be disclosed in the following cases:

- 22
- 23 i. When the patient's medical or physical condition is in 24 controversy in a court litigation and the court, in its 25 discretion, orders the patient to submit to physical or mental 26 examination of a physician;
 - 27
 - 28 ii. When public health or safety so demands;
 - 29
 - 30 iii. When the Patient, or in his incapacity, his/her legal 31 representative, expressly gives the consent;
 - 32
 - 33 iv. When the patient's medical or surgical condition is discussed 34 in a medical or scientific forum for expert discussion for I 35 his/her benefit or for the advancement of science and 36 medicine; Provided however, that the identity of the Patient 37 should not be revealed; and
 - 38
 - 39 v. When it is otherwise required by law.
 - 40
- 41 j. Right to Disclosure of, and Access to, Information - In the course of 42 the patient's treatment and hospital care, the Patient or his/her legal 1 guardian has the right to be informed of the result of the evaluation of 2 the nature and extent of his/her disease. Any other additional or 3 further contemplated medical treatment on surgical procedure or 4 procedures shall be disclosed and may only be performed with the 5 written consent of the patient.

6

7 The disclosure of information may be withheld if giving the 8 information to the Patient will cause mental suffering or further impair 9 his health, Provided, That such disclosure may be withheld or deferred 10 to some future opportune time upon due consultation with the patient's 11 immediate family, Provided further, That such information must be 12 given in a way that is appropriate to the local culture and in a manner 13 the Patient can understand.
14

15 The Patient has the right to choose who he/she desires should be 16 informed on his behalf, Provided however, That the Patient also has the 17 right not to be informed on his explicit request, unless it is required for 18 the protection of another person's life.
19

20 The Patient has the right to be given, and examine, an itemized 21 bill for hospital and medical services rendered. He is entitled to a 22 thorough explanation of such bill.
23

24 k. Right to Correspondence and to Receive Visitors - The Patient has the
