AN ACT
REGULATING PUBLIC SOLICITATIONS AND PROVIDING PENALTIES
FOR VIOLATION THEREOF, REPEALING FOR THE PURPOSE
ACT NO. 4075, AS AMENDED BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 1564, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE SOLICITATION PERMIT LAW

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

1           SECTION 1. Short Title. - This Act shall be known as the "Public Solicitation 2 Act".

3           Sec. 2. Declaration of Policy. - It is hereby declared a policy of the State to 4 regulate public solicitation undertaken by organizations, agencies, groups and 5 individuals in order to protect the general public from unscrupulous solicitation and 6 to ensure that funds raised through public solicitation are properly utilized for the 7 intended purpose and beneficiaries. Towards this end, standards and guidelines are 8 hereby established to strengthen the system of granting permits or authorization to 9 solicit funds or donations from the public.

10           Sec. 3. Definition of Terms. - As used in this Act:

11           (a) "Administrative cost" refers to the cost incurred in the management 12 and operation of the conduct of the solicitation activity which includes the application 13 fee for a solicitation permit, cost of mailing, printing of letters of appeal, certificates 14 and other paraphernalia;

1 (b) “Beneficiaries” refer to individuals situated in the Philippines who will 2 benefit from the proceeds of public solicitation conducted who are poor, vulnerable, 3 marginalized and disadvantaged sectors or entities. These include, but are not limited 4 to:

- 5 1. Children who are abandoned, neglected, orphaned, voluntarily 6 committed, abused and exploited, street children, children with 7 disabilities, children in conflict with the law, children in need of special 8 protection, children in indigenous/cultural communities, and children-9 victims of natural disasters;

30 relative within the third (3rd) degree of consanguinity or affinity of a patient suffering 31 from a chronic disease that requires long-term or expensive medication desiring to 32 solicit or receive charitable contributions from the public;

33 (g) “Organization or agency” refers to all national government agencies 34 (NGAs), government-owned and -controlled corporations (GOCCs), state universities

1 and colleges (SUCs), public schools, local government units (LGUs) and other 2 government agencies; non-stock, non-profit corporations, civil society organizations 3 (CSOs) including faith-based organizations, people's organizations; non-government 4 organizations (NGOs), academe, associations and similar organizations, chapters and 5 affiliates of similar international organizations operating in the Philippines desiring to 6 solicit or receive contributions from the public for charitable or public welfare 7 purposes;

8 (h) "Program cost" refers to all direct or indirect expenses incurred in the 9 provision of services or goods to the beneficiaries of the public solicitation including 10 expenses of the donee person, organization or agency in its operation and the 11 implementation of relevant programs and services;

12 (i) "Public" refers to the populace, society, masses or people in general 13 within the Philippine territory where the public solicitation is to be undertaken;

14 (j) "Public solicitation" refers to any activity or project intended to generate, 15 solicit, collect, and request funds, goods, or other assistance from the public for 16 charitable or public welfare purposes;

17 (k) "Public welfare purpose" refers to any activity or project related to the 18 promotion of health, education, peace, social welfare and protection, environmental 19 safety, rights, community security and safety and similar circumstances or conditions 20 including disaster relief operations and climate change management, preservation and 21 promotion of culture and arts;

25 Department of Social Welfare and Development Office (DSWD), the Provincial Social 26 Welfare and Development Office (PSWDO), the City Social Welfare and Development 27 Office (CSWDO), or the Municipal Social Welfare and Development Office (MSWDO) 28 to an AUTHORIZED individual, organization, or agency applying for such 29 authorization to solicit donations or voluntary contributions for charitable or public 30 welfare purposes.

31 Sec. 4. Coverage. – This Act shall apply to all NGAs, GOCCs, SUCs, public 32 schools, LGUs and other government agencies, individuals, CSOs including faith-33 based organizations, people's organizations, NGOs, academe, associations and similar 34 organizations, chapters and affiliates of similar international organizations operating

1 in the Philippines which are partly or fully financed with funds solicited from or 2 contributed by the public or private sector for charitable or public welfare purposes.

3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Act shall not be used as a defense against a 4 violation committed by a government official or employee against Section 7(d) of 5 Republic Act No. 6713, otherwise known as the "Code of Conduct and Ethical 6 Standards for Public Officials and Employees", on soliciting gifts or anything of 7 monetary value from any person in the course of their official duties or in connection 8 with any operation being regulated or any transaction which may be affected by the 9 functions of their office.

10 Sec. 5. Exemption from Coverage. – The following shall be exempt from 11 application of solicitation permit:

- 12 (a) Organizations and agencies created by laws that specifically confer authority 13 on these organizations and agencies to solicit or conduct fund campaign for 14 charitable or public welfare purposes shall continue to be covered by their 15 charters and shall not be required to acquire a solicitation permit: Provided, 16 that the DSWD and concerned Local Social Welfare and Development Office 17 (LSWDO) shall be informed in writing before the conduct of the solicitation 18 campaign and shall have the authority to monitor their activities and to 19 require these organizations and agencies to submit reports pertaining to the 20 conduct of the public solicitation and the utilization of funds solicited: 21 Provided, further, that the DSWD shall maintain and periodically update 22 the list of organizations and agencies that are exempted from application of 23 solicitation permit;
- 24 (b) Traditional carolling activities and performances during the holiday season, 25 involving modest donations and solicitations, regardless of purpose;
- 26 (c) Solicitations for religious purposes that are made within religious 27 sanctuaries, such as churches, mosques, and such other building or 28 structure regularly used for religious services or worship; and
- 29 (d) Solicitations for personal purposes that are strictly confined to relatives 30 within fourth degree of affinity or consanguinity, and friends and associates 31 personally known to the persons conducting the solicitation.

1           Sec. 6. Solicitation Permit; Requirements. -- No solicitation permit shall be 2 issued to an individual, organization, or agency before first complying with the 3 following documentary requirements:

- 4           (a) Duly accomplished application form signed by the individual, organization, 5           or agency head or an authorized representative;
- 6           (b) Project proposal of the individual applicant or in the case of an organization, 7           a proposal approved by the head of the applicant organization or agency on 8           the intended public solicitation activity including the work and financial 9           plan on the activity to be undertaken, information and details relative to, or 10          a general description of, the intended beneficiaries, and proposed mode of 11          identifying and selecting beneficiaries in cases where the exact beneficiaries 12          are to be determined after the solicitation activity;
- 13          (c) Personal profile of individual applicant showing information attesting to the 14          applicant's identity and capability and integrity to launch a solicitation drive 15          or in the case of an organization, certified true copy of Certificate of 16          Registration and Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws with the Securities 17          and Exchange Commission (SEC) or other regulatory government agency 18          which has jurisdiction to regulate the organization or agency;
- 19          (d) Updated certification of good standing from the SEC or other regulatory 20          government agency which has jurisdiction to regulate the organization or 21          agency;
- 22          (e) Notarized written agreement or any similar document signifying the 23          concurrence of the intended beneficiaries as recipient of the solicitation 24          activity, in cases where the beneficiaries are identified prior to the 25          solicitation activity; and
- 26          (f) Notarized board resolution or other written authorization for the 27          organization's or agency's planned solicitation activity which shall ensure 28          strict compliance with the standard ratio on fund utilization.

29           The DSWD shall make samples and forms of the documentary requirements 30 available online and in their offices for public use and reference.

31           For purposes of this Act, for institutions or organizations seeking funding 32 support during disaster response activities shall have additional three (3) months to 33 submit documentary requirements.

1           Sec. 7. Authority to Issue Permit. - The following officials are authorized to 2 grant a solicitation permit to an eligible individual, organization, or agency that will 3 conduct solicitation activities for charitable or public welfare purposes:

4           (a) Secretary of the DSWD or a duly authorized Undersecretary of the DSWD 5           for all public solicitations;

6           (b) DSWD Regional Director or any duly authorized representative for regional 7           public solicitations;

8           (c) Provincial Governor through the PSWDO Chief or any duly authorized 9           representative for provincial public solicitations; and

10          (d) City or Municipal Mayor through the CSWDO Chief or the MSWDO Chief or 11          any duly authorized representative for local public solicitations and online 12          public solicitations.

13           Sec. 8. Validity of Permit. – All solicitation permits issued by the DSWD, the 14 PSWDO, the CSWDO, or the MSWDO shall be valid only on the approved date of 15 coverage which in no case shall exceed one (1) year within the specified city, 16 municipality, region, or areas in the Philippines. Its validity shall not extend outside 17 of the Philippines even if the target beneficiaries and donors are Filipinos.

18           An organization or agency with a good track record in conducting public 19 solicitation, as determined by the DSWD, the PSWDO, the CSWDO, or the MSWDO, 20 may be granted a solicitation permit with a longer validity period that shall not exceed 21 two (2) years.

22           Sec. 9. Types of Public Solicitation. – Public solicitation shall be categorized 23 as follows:

24           (a) Local public solicitation refers to a solicitation activity conducted within a 25           city or municipality;

26           (b) Provincial public solicitation refers to a solicitation activity conducted 27           within two (2) or more cities or municipalities in the same province;

28           (c) Regional public solicitation refers to a solicitation activity conducted within 29           two (2) or more provinces in a region;

30           (d) National public solicitation refers to a solicitation activity conducted in two 31           (2) or more regions; and

1 (e) Online Public Solicitations refers to solicitation activity conducted through 2 computer or a computer network, the electronic medium in which online 3 communication takes place.

4 Sec. 10. *Solicitation During Calamities or Disasters. – In times of natural or 5 human-induced calamities or disasters and the intended beneficiaries of the public 6 solicitation are disaster-stricken areas or communities where a state of calamity has 7 been declared by the President of the Philippines or the local sanggunian, a temporary 8 solicitation permit may be issued to the applicant individual, organization, or agency 9 upon submission of a duly accomplished application form, as provided for in Section 10 6(a) of this Act, signed by the applicant individual, or head of the organization or 11 agency or an authorized representative and a preliminary determination by the 12 appropriate office that the applicant is sufficiently qualified to conduct public 13 solicitation.

14 The validity of the temporary solicitation permit shall be determined by the 15 concerned DSWD office, PSWDO, CSWDO, or MSWDO in coordination with the 16 Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council office or equivalent office 17 depending on their assessment of the impact of the calamity or disaster to the affected 18 areas. The applicant individual, organization, or agency shall comply with the 19 requirements provided under Section 6 of this Act within the period set forth by the 20 concerned DSWD office, PSWDO, or MSWDO.

21 Sec. 11. *Fees and Charges. – For national and regional public solicitations, the 22 DSWD may charge reasonable fees corresponding to the cost only of preparing the 23 solicitation permit. The fees shall be remitted to the National Treasury, recorded as a 24 Special Account in the General Fund and shall be available to the DSWD through a 25 Special Budget pursuant to Section 35 of Executive Order No. 292, otherwise known 26 as the “Administrative Code of 1987”. For provincial and local public solicitations, the 27 governor, city, or municipal mayor may impose reasonable fees corresponding to the 28 cost only of preparing the solicitation permit, subject to the provisions of Republic Act 29 No. 7160, otherwise known as the “Local Government Code of 1991” and other existing 30 laws.

31 Sec. 12. *Methods of Public Solicitation. – Public solicitation may be done 32 through any of the following, whether online or offline:

- 1 (a) Written request such as letters of appeal, envelopes, cards, and other 2 similar forms;
- 3 (b) Mass media campaign through television, cinema, radio, magazines, 4 newspapers, billboards, and other similar forms;
- 5 (c) Distribution, circulation, publication, or posting of written advertisement 6 or other similar forms;
- 7 (d) Rummage sales and sale of goods including souvenir items;
- 8 (e) Benefit shows including concerts, fashion shows, and other forms of 9 entertainment;
- 10 (f) Fun runs, marathon, cycling, and other forms of sports activities;
- 11 (g) Popularity contests, beauty pageants, and other events which requires the 12 contestants to conduct public solicitations;
- 13 (h) Donation boxes, coin banks, and other similar forms; and
- 14 (i) Other methodologies that may be allowed by the DSWD, the PSWDO, the 15 CSWDO, or the MSWDO.

16 Provided, that requests for financial assistance from the Philippine Charity 17 Sweepstakes Office (PCSO) and similar agencies shall not be covered under this Act.
18 Provided, further, that the ceiling amount for the cost of public solicitation 19 paraphernalia shall be set in the implementing rules and regulations to be issued 20 pursuant to this Act.

21 Sec. 13. Allocation of Proceeds. – Not more than thirty percent (30%) of the 22 total proceeds from the fund-raising activity of any individual, organization, or agency 23 shall be expended for administrative cost. The remaining fund shall be utilized entirely 24 for projects or programs for the targeted beneficiaries: Provided, that in cases where 25 solicitation campaigns are conducted to fund programs or projects to help disaster or 26 calamity-stricken areas or resolve national or local crises, a more flexible term in the 27 allocation of the proceeds is allowed. Unless compliance with this section is 28 satisfactorily established on the basis of the report required in Section 15 of this Act, 29 no individual, organization, or agency shall be issued any subsequent solicitation 30 permit.

1 It shall be mandatory for funds collected from public solicitations to be 2 deposited in a banking institution regulated by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) 3 in the name of the applicant individual, organization, or agency to which the 4 solicitation permit was issued. The individual, organization, or agency shall maintain 5 a book of accounts for the monitoring and validation of the report.

6 The date, duration, and place where the consolidation and accounting of 7 proceeds shall be undertaken and the date of the awarding or turnover of the proceeds 8 to the beneficiaries shall be witnessed by the authorized representatives from the 9 DSWD, the PSWDO, the CSWDO, or the MSWDO for national and regional, provincial, 10 city, or municipal public solicitation, respectively.

11 Sec. 14. *Monitoring and Validation of Public Solicitation. – The individual, 12 organization, or agency to which the solicitation permit was issued shall submit to the 13 concerned DSWD office and LSWDO the following documents:

14 (a) Not later than sixty (60) days after issuance of the permit, duly notarized 15 report signed and sworn to by the individual or by at least two (2) 16 authorized officers of the organization or agency, indicating whether the 17 solicitation permit was used or not.

18 1. If the issued solicitation permit is not used, the individual, 19 organization, or agency shall submit to the appropriate DSWD office, 20 PSWDO, CSWDO, or MSWDO the justification for not conducting or 21 continuing the solicitation activity within the validity period, and 22 surrender the issued permit;

23 2. If the solicitation permit was used, an initial report on the status of 24 utilization of the issued permit shall be submitted;

25 (b) Not later than sixty (60) days after the expiration of the issued 26 solicitation permit, the following documents shall be submitted:

27 1. Notarized fund utilization report of its income and expenditures 28 sworn to by the individual, or in the case of an organization or agency, 29 the president and treasurer of the organization or agency;

30 2. List of donors with their corresponding addresses and contact 31 numbers, and the amount of donations;

32 3. List of beneficiaries, with corresponding signatures, addresses and 33 contact numbers, and the amount or types of assistance extended;

- 1 4. List of projects undertaken and completed with an indication of their
- 2 location and cost; and
- 3 5. Expired original solicitation permit.

4 Provided, that the DSWD shall keep and maintain a record of the organizations 5 with solicitation permits including information on their validity. These information 6 shall be readily made available to the public, whether the solicitation activity is online 7 or offline.

8 To assist in the monitoring of public solicitation activities, the public may 9 inquire from the DSWD or concerned LSWDO whether a public solicitation activity is 10 legitimate or not.

11 Sec. 15. *Anonymous Donations. – Donations from anonymous individuals 12 may only be received for the amount less than the covered transaction as defined under 13 AMLA.

14 If the total amount of anonymous donations falls under covered transactions, 15 the individual or entity conducting public solicitation shall issue a Certification under 16 Oath that the amount was not sourced from illegal means and that the same shall be 17 used for legitimate purpose.

18 Sec. 16. *Reportorial Requirements for Exempt Organizations. – Those 19 organizations or agencies that are exempt from securing a solicitation permit as 20 specified in Section 5(a) of this Act should inform the DSWD and concerned LSWDO 21 in writing prior to conducting solicitation activity and submit reportorial requirements 22 at the end of the fiscal year when the public solicitation has been conducted. Reports 23 shall consist of the following documents:

- 24 (a) Notarized fund utilization report of its collections, income and
- 25 expenditures sworn to by the president and treasurer of the organization
- 26 or agency;
- 27 (b) List of donors with their corresponding addresses and contact numbers;
- 28 (c) List of beneficiaries, with corresponding signatures, addresses and
- 29 contact numbers, and the amount or types of assistance extended; and
- 30 (d) List of projects completed, location and cost with complete
- 31 documentation on the project including pictures, videos, and
- 32 testimonies of beneficiaries.

1           Sec. 17. Regulatory Powers. – The DSWD, the PSWDO, the CSWDO, or the 2 MSWDO shall, in the exercise of their regulatory powers, verify the authenticity of the 3 report submitted by conducting spot monitoring or reviewing of the book of accounts 4 of the concerned individual, organization, or agency. Likewise, the DSWD is granted 5 visitorial powers to ensure that the soliciting individuals and organizations are 6 legitimate and that funds solicited are properly utilized.

7           DSWD may provide a template for books of accounts for applicants.

8           Sec. 18. Filing of Complaints. – The DSWD, the PSWDO, the CSWDO, or the 9 MSWDO shall, on its own initiative or upon a verified complaint of any person, refer 10 to the appropriate law enforcement agency or the prosecutor's office for investigation 11 and the filing of complaint in the appropriate court any violation of the provisions of 12 this Act.

13           Any individual or law enforcement agency may file a complaint before the 14 appropriate court against any individual, organization, or agency, which shall commit, 15 or is engaged in, any of the acts punishable under Section 20 of this Act.

16           Sec. 19. Role of Law Enforcement Agencies. – The DSWD, the PSWDO, the 17 CSWDO, or the MSWDO may enlist the assistance of law enforcement agencies in the 18 efficient and effective enforcement of this act.

19           Sec. 20. Prohibited Acts. – The following acts are punishable under this Act:

- 20           (a) Soliciting without securing a solicitation permit from the DSWD, the 21           PSWDO, the CSWDO, or the MSWDO;
- 22           (b) Soliciting beyond the allowed area of coverage as indicated in the approved 23           solicitation permit except online public solicitation;
- 24           (c) Violating the mode of solicitation as indicated in the approved solicitation 25           permit;
- 26           (d) Using a falsified or tampered solicitation permit;
- 27           (e) Soliciting with an expired solicitation permit;
- 28           (f) Using the solicited funds for purposes other than those indicated in the 29           application form;
- 30           (g) Including the beneficiaries as part of the strategy or mechanism in 31           conducting the solicitation activity which tends to exploit the beneficiaries;

- 1 (h) Use of lottery, raffle, bingo, and other games of chance, except as may be 2 authorized by law;
- 3 (i) Using solicitation paraphernalia which portray a dehumanizing picture, 4 information or situation of the intended beneficiaries;
- 5 (j) Disbursement of solicited funds are not in accordance with the standard 6 fund utilization ratio;
- 7 (k) Failure to account for the solicited funds; and
- 8 (l) Other analogous circumstances.

9 Sec. 21. Penal Provisions. – Any individual, organization or agency who 10 commits the prohibited acts under Section 19 (a), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i) and (j) of this 11 Act shall be punished with imprisonment of three (3) to six (6) months or a fine of not 12 less than ten thousand pesos (₱10,000) but not more than one hundred thousand 13 pesos (₱100,000) or both, at the discretion of the court.

14 Any individual, organization or agency who commits the prohibited acts under 15 Section 19 (b) and (c) of this Act shall be punished with imprisonment of one (1) to 16 three (3) months or a fine of not less than ten thousand pesos (₱10,000) but not more 17 than one hundred thousand pesos (₱100,000) or both, at the discretion of the court.
