AN ACT
PROVIDING FOR THE URBAN AND COUNTRYSIDE GREENING IN THE PHILIPPINES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In support of and complementary to the government's National Greening Program, this bill seeks to ensure the sufficient greenery in urban and countryside areas by making it mandatory to plant trees in urban and countryside parks, as well as, in school grounds, vacant lots and other urbanized sites all over the country.

The Philippines was once known for its vast and lush forests. Through decades, the environmental situation of the country has undergone a transformation. In 1990, forests covered 35.5 percent of the country's land area. By 2005, the number dropped to 24 percent. The Philippines' rate of deforestation from 2000-2005 is 2.1 percent, the highest in the Southeast Asian region.

This bill aims to improve the country's environmental conditions by building, developing and maintaining forests parks in local areas, educational institutions and public roads; promoting environmental consciousness among the Filipinos, and protecting the existing trees from further harm.

This proposed measure will establish a National Greening Committee to be headed by the DENR Secretary. To guarantee the proper nationwide implementation of the programs, the respective secretaries of other departments such as the Department of Tourism (DOT), Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG), and Department of Agriculture will serve as the committee's members. Among the dealings the committee has to undertake are the strict implementation of the requirements of the tree planting along national roads and mandatory planting of trees in urban and countryside parks, public vacant lots and other permissible areas.

Finally, this bill protects existing trees and plants by prohibiting cutting and destroying without the necessary permit. The penalties against violations have been included and specified.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
