AN ACT
ESTABLISHING GREATER RESPONSIBILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY FROM PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE
REPUBLIC ACT NO. 10361, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE "BATAS KASAMBAHAY"

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 10361, otherwise known as the "Domestic Workers Act" or "Batas Kasambahay" was signed into law on 18 January 2013 in our nation's pursuit to protect the rights and promote the welfare of our kasambahays. This landmark legislation embodies the rights and privileges of kasambahays, their pre-employment requirements, as well as the terms and conditions of their employment, among others. The law prompted a more proactive and coordinated actions from various government agencies which resulted to the improvement of the delivery of services for kasambahays including their registration and contribution to Social Security System (SSS), Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth) and Home Development Mutual Fund (HDMF) or Pag-Ibig Fund.

Batas Kasambahay is a demonstration of our appreciation of our household workers for their sincere dedication to work and loving care for our families. Because of this, they are often considered as members of the family and are entrusted with important chores such as taking care of the children. It is however, disheartening to hear that there are some of them who are careless and abusive – there are those who steal from their employers and worst, there are cases where they abuse and even take the lives of the children they are supposed to take care of.

This measure proposes to designate greater responsibility to private employment agencies (PEAs) in order to provide protection to the employers. Under this measure, PEAs are required to ensure that the applicant kasambahay has no criminal record and to conduct actual verification of the residence and the family background of the applicant. In line with this, for a period of one (1) year from the first day of the employment of the kasambahay with the employer, the PEAs will also be subsidiarily liable in relation to any criminal act committed by the kasambahay in the course of his or her employment.

In light of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is recommended.
