SENATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

SENATE

S. B. No. 37

RECEIVED BY:

Introduced by Senator Biazon

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This measure seeks to establish a socialized and low-cost housing loan restructuring program. It is motivated by the primordial need for government to provide fresh hope to those who have failed to avail of the provisions of RA 8501 but wish to keep their homes and pay their loans at rates affordable and in keeping with their current economic status.

From the perspective of creditors, borrowers must stick to the agreement originally drafted and signed by both parties when the loan was availed. However, such scenario at this time is far from realistic, given the prevailing socio-economic conditions of the country. It is perhaps best purely to look at this problem from a more humanitarian and compassionate point of view than from a purely economic standpoint.

A country's laws, policies, rules, and regulations are created not to make life a rigid line for its citizens to toe, but to improve the quality of life for its people. As such, this bill responds to such a need from the many borrowers and their families affected by a crisis that has already inflicted much suffering on their lives. Apart from the previously stated premises, this measure also seeks to rescue the ailing National Shelter Program.

Given the foregoing, passage of this bill is earnestly urged.

RODOLFO G. BIAZON
