

FOURTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC)
OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

7 JUN 30 P3:39

SENATE
Senate Bill No. 192

RECEIVED BY:

Introduced by Senator Lacson

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Our country is facing a crisis of confidence that is eroding the public's trust in our markets, and poses a real threat to the economy. The present state of our laws requires a strong and balanced response to the accounting and corporate responsibility problems confronting our financial markets. The problem of restoring investor confidence has become more and more widespread.

Thus, it is critical to put provisions in place that will deter and punish corporate and accounting fraud and corruption, ensure justice for wrongdoers, and protect the interests of workers and shareholders.

This bill aims to improve the quality and transparency of financial reporting, independent audits, and accounting services for public companies. It strengthens the independence of firms that audit public companies; increases corporate responsibility and the usefulness of corporate financial disclosure; penalizes corporate wrongdoing and protects the objectivity and independence of securities analysts.

Moreover, to intensify corporate responsibility, chief executive officers and chief financial officers must personally vouch for the truth and fairness of their company's disclosures under pain of sanctions that include reimbursement of any bonus or other incentive/equity-based compensation they have received from the issuer and the profits they have realized from the sale of securities of the issuer within the 12 month period following the first public issuance or the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the financial document embodying such financial report. The proposed measure likewise specifically provides for penalties for the destruction, alteration or falsification of corporate audit record or any other record to obstruct government investigation. Increased criminal penalties are imposed on those who commit securities fraud.

Furthermore, corporate misdeeds will be found and punished by furthering the authority of the SEC to uncover wrongdoing. The SEC may now bar dishonest directors and officers from ever again serving in positions of corporate responsibility.

For the reasons above-stated, approval of this bill is therefore earnestly requested.
