SENATE

S. B. No. 338

Introduced by Senator JINGGOY EJERCITO ESTRADA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The political exercise of suffrage is the express manifestation of an individual's sovereign act of choosing a representative for the purpose of delegating the powers, functions and duties related to governance. As such, violations of any character that tend to destroy the sanctity of this act of sovereignty must be dealt with the full force of the law. Unfortunately, current penalties provided for by our election laws are inadequate in order to deter violators from committing acts that undermine the sovereign will. It is thus imperative that certain election offenses be classified as heinous while other offenses be given the appropriate penalty with the end in view of ensuring the sanctity of one's sovereign will in the selection of our nation's public servants.

Immediate passage of this bill is thus earnestly recommended.
