SENATE

RECEIVED BY:

Senate Bill No. 640

INTRODUCED BY SEN. JINGGOY EJERCITO ESTRADA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution affirms the principle that the maintenance of peace and order, the protection of life, liberty and property, and the promotion of the general welfare are essential for the enjoyment by all the people of the blessings of democracy.

Dereliction of duty by a public officer through abetting the escape of a prisoner, however, is both a circumvention and a negation of this Constitutional provision.

In view thereof, this bill seeks to amend Article 223 of the Revised Penal Code by imposing penalties on any public officer who, without proper court order or authorization, releases a prisoner and later allows him to return to his detention cell, or consents to or connives in the escape of a prisoner under his custody or charge.

Approval of this bill is therefore earnestly requested.
