EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article 2, Section 9 of the 1987 Constitution provides that:

“The State shall promote a just and dynamic social order the will ensure the prosperity and independence of the nation and free the people from poverty through policies that provide adequate social services, promote full employment, a rising standard of living, and an improved quality of life for all”.

Section 11 of the same article further provides that:

“The State values the dignity of every human person and guarantees full respect of human rights”.

Accordingly, persons confined in institutions providing skilled nursing, intermediate or long-term care, or custodial or residential care, must be accorded adequate social services and respect for their dignity.

This Act will ensure that institutionalized persons will not be subjected to shabby and abusive treatment from the people charged with their care and custody.

In view of the above, the immediate passage of this bill is fervently sought.
