EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to amend Section 13 of RA 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, by empowering the Local Government Units through their Sanggunian Panlalawigan, Panlungsod or Bayan, to declare local holidays.

Under this bill, the Sangguniang Panlalawigan, Panlungsod or Bayan, upon consultation with the National Historical Institute and Local Historical Associations, if any, and the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), may declare, through an ordinance duly approved by three fourths (3/4) vote of all their respective members, not more than two (2) working or non-working special public holidays in a given year to commemorate significant historic events in the locality.

This is an area of local legislation where the Sanggunian is given the task of identifying the momentous past in the annals of the local government unit concerned, and declare it as working or non-working special public holidays, to honor such special event.

Hence, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
