

FOURTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE)
REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

SENATE

S. No. 1191

INTRODUCED BY THE HONORABLE MAR ROXAS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The death of a soldier or a policeman does not only mean that the country lost one of its brave warriors and defenders. It also means the loss of a father or mother.

The tragedy does not end in the gallant fighter biting the dust: it continues on to his or her children, who may have to stop schooling due to the breadwinner's demise. The soldier's or policeman's poor family is pushed deeper into poverty, and this is because that gallant soldier or policeman put his life on the line for the sake of the country.

To help uplift the plight of families left behind by slain soldiers and policemen, this bill seeks to provide educational benefits for the minor children of soldiers and policemen who are killed by insurgents or slain in the line of duty.

The educational benefits for minor orphaned children will include tuition fees and a reasonable allowance for books, school supplies, transportation, clothing and food, and will cover those who were orphaned prior to the approval of this Act but are still minors upon its approval; beneficiaries who reach the age of majority while enjoying benefits and have not completed their secondary education shall continue to be entitled to the benefits until they complete their education; and those who are minors upon the approval of this Act.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
