EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article II, Section 5 provides:

The maintenance of peace and order, the protection of life, liberty and property and the promotion of the general welfare are essential for the enjoyment by all people of the blessings of democracy.

Reform is needed to ensure that criminals are held accountable for their actions, that they receive swift and certain punishment commensurate with their crimes, and that the protection of innocent citizens takes priority over other objectives.

Criminals should face a high probability of apprehension and prosecution, and those found guilty should face absolutely certain measured response penalties, which at the same time are aimed to rehabilitate the criminals.

This is necessary in order to remove violent criminals from the streets and meet the extraordinary threat that posed to the public by the use and trafficking of illegal drugs.

Hence, this bill seeks to provide swift and certain punishment for criminals in order to deter violent crime.*
